Where Am I?

[Lollipop's POV]

"Ugh...oh my where even am I?' I said feeling the cool breeze and the grass sway by my feet. I stood up to look around. There were a few objects awake. I couldn't really understand at first so i tried to remember....Oh. Thats right i should be on a vacation right now. Well as i see this is not a beach all i see is grass , trees , water you name it. I looked around until i saw familiar faces. Gelatin and Teardrop. My alliance is here that's wonderful. I approached them as they saw me."Lolly! Hi!" The green gelatin said with a smile as Teardrop smiled at me."Yes, Hello alliance anyways do you have an idea where we are?"

"It hasn't even started and they're already confused four.." A voice said as another voice replied."X! You messed up!" The other voice replied angrily."Sorry foury..Are you gonna despawn me?" The other voice asked as we heard shooting sounds from afar. "Ehem! Ehem! Okay..Listen up everyone! Do you guys wanna play a game for a prize?" A blue creature shaped like a number four appeared starring into our souls.

"Ooh! A prize? What kind of prize?" A voice asked behind me. "Glad you asked fireboy! You guys will be getting... Freedom!" The number four exclaimed as i looked confused to see Gelatin looking confused at me then to Teardrop."Freedom? Boo! What are we even gonna play?!" A red block asked from a distance as i saw a smirk on the number four's face." Good question we'll be playing a killing game!" They said as confetti came out of no where."Oh yeah!! How rude of me to not introduce myself. Im four your host! And this is- oh wait hold on.." Soon a yellow creature came out of their hands."Yeah and this is X co-host yeah." Four said pointing at X."Hi everyone!" X said waving at everyone getting a small glare from four.

"Okay! Nice that we're playing a game but should we really be playing something so risky? I mean killing is wrong" A voice said i turned around to see Loser? He was mostly famous all around the world. I knew some things about him but all i know is that he's some TV Star.."Oh hush now Loser. Before you become an actual loser, Anyways yes. This will be a killing game. There will be motives to kill. Trials. And those so yeah. X... isn't ready with the motive yet so go enjoy or whatever c'mon X." Four said taking X with them.

"Well how unusual was that huh.."Gelatin said as Teardrop nodded."Well very much." I said as we walked for a while until we encountered a flower."Oh? Who are you guys huh? Stepping into my radius only my beauty should be here!" She boasted. "Well my friends over here and well, me wanted to introduce ourselves." I said looking over to the flower. She seemed...self centered i clearly didn't quite like her."Flower! Ultimate Fashion Designer! I mean my designs are a big hit i mean look at these glittery sweaters i made!"She said wearing a pink glitter sweater."Well.. I'm Lollipop, Ultimate Saleswoman. Well i do say those sweaters are good but they aren't quite match for my..Fork repellent.! It's multipurpose as well." I said as Gelatin butted in and said."And im Gelatin Ultimate Restaurant Manager and this is Teardrop Ultimate Comic Artist! TD can't talk though.I have no idea. But her comics are out of this world!" Gelatin said as I walked away from them.

I was walking until i bumped into a Ruby."Oh hi there! Im Ruby Ultimate Geologist! And you?" She asked." Lollipop ultimate saleswoman. I sell fork repellants." I said "Ooh! I think i saw you in a commercial once..or was it the Yellowface one.." She said. Ugh yellowface Factory i hated that place i thought to myself as i walked away.

I walked somewhere and saw a Flame and a Leaf together i was about to say something but the leaf beat me to it."OH! HI! IM LEAFY ULTIMATE MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER! AND THIS IS FIREY ULTIMATE ARSONIST! Sorry nice to meet new people right Firey?" She asked as Firey nodded."Well im Lollipop Ultimate Saleswoman." I said as Leafy's eyes sparkled."Wonderful ultimate! Say are you that girl who had fork repallents?" She asked."Sure am!" I said pulling out a can." Its multipurpose!" I said showing her."I'll take 2 of those!" She said handing me 20 dollars. As she smilled then firey said."Hey leafy weren't you gonna help me with something?" He said as Leafy replied."Oh right! Sorry Lolli we have to go she said pulling firey away.Lolli? Seriously. First Purple candy now Lolli .

I then went somewhere and bumped into a taco."SORRY SORRY SORRY! Oh hi there. So you must be Lollipop. Don't ask how i know that! I just do! Taco, Ultimate Detective!" She said pulling out a magnifying glass."Cool ey?" She said as i nodded. Soon i got hit by something. "HEY! BLOCKY SAY SORRY TO POOR LOLLIPOP HERE!" Taco said as i turned around to see a red block and Wood that seemed like Balsa." Ugh..fine.. oh a new face. Blocky ultimate prankster! And uh this is Woody Ultimate Helper, now we gotta go make pranks wanna come?" He asked me as i replied with a simple no. And they walked off.

I tried looking for Gelatin and TD then i finally found them with a bubble."Oh hoi there! Oim Bubble Ultimate Baker! I make Yoylecakes!" She said as i replied."Lollipop Ultimate Saleswoman. Man this is getting old honestly.." I said as they laughed."Anyways Lolly, TD wanna go by the water?" Gelatin asked as we both nodded and we went to the Sea.There we were greated by a sponge and a Profile picture."Oh look more people!" The Pfp said waving. "Hi there!" They said as Gelatin replied."Hi Im Gelatin this is Lollipop and Teardrop!" He said."I'm Profily but call me Profile Picture because my friends only call me profily! And i don't remember my talent..sorry.."They said as Gelatin patted them on the back."Its okay you'll remember. " And you? Who may you be?" I asked."Spongy! Ultimate Pilot! I fly planes, and play table tennis and play..ping pong, and i sail planes and yeah!" Spongy said happily as Gelatin said."C'mon lets go back its getting late."They said as we agreed.

We came back to see a hotel in front of us.With a sign that said."Yeah you guys will stay here -Four" we all went in as i saw that each room was labeled with names i found mine and it looked cozy i guess. I layed on my bed and slowly started falling asleep.

I did my best and Lollipop Will be hanging out with Gelatin and TD

Newbie Alliance [Hangout]

[Lollipop's POV]

I woke up to hear a blow horn."It's like 7 in the morning who could be doing that obscured noise..?"I asked to myself as i went out of my suite to see Blocky with a blow horn with Woody standing beside him."Wee! Woo! Wee! Woo!" Blocky said."Hey! Can you like keep it down some of us are trying to sleep!" Taco said going out of her room getting a glare from blocky."Sheesh you don't have to be sooo demanding Ms.Detective!~" Blocky said in a sarcastic tone walking away with woody.She looked around until she saw me."Oh hi Lolly!" She said."It's Lollipop. Now peace and quiet is back." I said as i saw Gelatin and Teardrop exiting their rooms.Teardrop went over to me and handed me a note.

As i read it i just patted TD on the head and yawned."Good morning alliance! Have an idea what to do today?" Gelatin asked. I mean, i have nothing much to do today so i guess i could hang out with the newbie alliance today."Well all we can basically do is get fresh air." I said as Gelatin and TD faced each other and nodded."Alright! Lets go then!" Gelatin exclaimed as he and Teardrop ran outside."Welp, outside we go." I said walking outside the hotel. There we saw a Balloon that we havent met before."Oh hello there!" Gelatin said as TD waved at the balloon."Oh! Heya! I'm Balloony Ultimate Morse Code Decoder! And you guys are?" Balloony asked."Gelatin Ultimate Restaurant Manager! That's Lollipop Ultimate Saleswoman, And Teardrop Ultimate Comic Artist TD for short!" Gelatin stated."Well i am impressed. I didn't think a morse code decoder was a thing these days."I said quite interested."Well yeah but think of it as a...hm..i dont know, Oh well!"Balloony said shrugging."Anyways c'mon gang!" Gelatin said walking away as we followed.

There were more buildings here. There was a playground with seesaws, swings and slides."Why are there so much seesaws?" I asked."I dont know..Whats that TD?" Gelatin said looking over to TD who was pointing at the swing."Oh sure thing my watery friend!" I said as we all walked over to the swings. Gelatin and Teardrop went on the swings as i just stood there watching them."Hey! Lolly why not swing with us." Gelatin asked with TD also looking at me."No thanks i don't want to." I said."Awh c'mon Lollipop! Atleast for a while?" Gelatin said getting of the swing begging me."Oh well alright then." I said getting on the swing."woo hoo, this is actually fun!" I said swinging."See? Its fun!" Gelatin said swinging. We were in the playground for hours, Swinging, Playing in the seesaws, playing in the sand. It was like revisiting your childhood again!

"That was fun and all but i suggest..we do something else, I'm quite bored." I said getting up from the sand brushing of the sand from my stick and legs. Then teardrop showed us a peice of paper

Well how about checking out the book store? I saw it as i was swinging maybe there's cool comics.

"The book store? Thats a good idea! Maybe there's some other stuff there!" Gelatin said."Well then my watery friend, if you insist." I said as we headed over to the bookstore. Ding! The door opened as we walked it. Teardrop went to find some comics to inspire her and Gelatin looked around. I took a magazine and sat down next to teardrop reading my mazagine."Ugh, yellow face factory again. Seriously! They should buy fork replants! Forks are a menace to society." I said flipping a page of the magazine."Guys! Guys! Look! I found TD's comic" Gelatin said as Teardrop looked shocked. She opened it and grabbed a pen to sign it." Ooh, perks of being a comic artist. I do wonder who would be the lucky one to get this." I said as TD looked at me and took the comic and kept it."Oh, your keeping it to yourself?" I asked. She shook her head and gave it to gelatin."R-really? You mean it?!" He asked as Teardrop nodded and smiled.

Time flew by like a leaf getting carried in the air. It was night time. Us three had dinner and mostly agreed in sleeping over in my suite. "TD, i think you had a typo at this part." Gelatin said pointing at the part of the comic as i looked as well."No, thats right it says So i walked out. Theres nothing wrong with that sentence." I said as Gelatin replied with a simple."Oh" TD just smiled seeing Gelatin enjoy one of her comic as she turned to me and also gave me a comic she made."For me? You shouldn't have!" I pushed the comic away as she just pushed it back to me."Really?" I asked as she nodded happily smiling."Alright, Alright I'll read it dont worry." I started reading the comic. It was about some aloe vera plant monster attacking people and some heros attacking it with the ray of the sun. It was quite random but interesting. We were spending time until we heard a voice. "Hey. You two go back to your rooms or I'll have to kill you both infront of your dear friends eyes." It was four who said that. He was glaring at both of them."Aw c'mon four! Cant we sleep over here?." Gelatin asked as Four looked over to gelatin about to use his ray to shoot him."Okay! Okay! We'll go! Well go! C'mon TD!" Gelatin said grabbing Teardrop by the hand as they left the room. I turn to look at four but he was gone. Oh well. I went on the bed turned off the lap and went to sleep. Maybe i should hang out with someone other than my alliance tomorrow. Its a better idea than nothing.

I will mostly be spinning the wheel to see who gets to hang out with lollipop for the next chapter so. Stay tuned in Inanimate Insa- wait no. I mean BFB Ronpa. Yeah.

Leaves and Sweets [Hangout]

[Lollipop's POV]

I woke up from my sleep and i got out of my bed and did the basics, Make the bed, Hygiene, those stuff. Before going out of the room. I got out of my room and saw Leafy, Well i did say i was gonna hangout with someone else besides my fellow alliance members so why not give her a shot." Why hello there my green leafy acquaintance. How are you today?" I asked as she looked happy as usual."I'm doing great Lollipop! How about you?" She asked me."Oh I'm doing quite swell today, say. Do you want to hang out?" I asked as her face lit up "Thats an awesome idea! Why not ask someone to join us? The more the merrier!" She said cheerfully and i just nodded.Soon i was hanging out of Leafy, Firey and Flower. I didn't know anything much, but anything to pass the time." Okay! Guys! What do you want to do?" Firey asked."Let's have a fashion show! You guys can wear my now glittery sweaters! They can repel vomit!" She said pulling out a pink and yellow sweater."Erm. No thank you don't feel like it." I said as she just frowned and put the glitter sweater back from where it came from."Maybe a picnic! We could enjoy some food! And the scenery!" Leafy happily suggested."Well..i do want to eat something sweet right now.." Firey said. We all agreed and went to a near by picnic table. Firey went of to get the food and Flower claimed she went to get something back at her room which leaves me and Leafy sitting at the picnic table."So! You're a saleswoman, do you have anything else besides fork repellents?" Leafy asked to break the silence."Uhm well we do have spoons, they're nice and shiny!" I said pulling out a spoon."Oh! Thats cool! You remind me of the yellow face factory!" Leafy said."Please don't bring that name up. That is a rivaling company, even the name sends shivers." I replied. I hated that company."Oh! I apologize Lolly! I didn't know!" She replied."Oh hey you two what are you up to?" We turned to see Loser. Ultimate Tv Star. "Oh my gosh! It's Loser! What an honor! D-do you want to join us! On a picnic?" Leafy said excitedly until Firey came back with the food."Woah! Loser! Would you like to join us? We have cakes! And stuff." Firey said."Hm..Sure! Why not..?" Loser replied sitting down.Flower soon came back with a picnic mat."Hold on! You can't have a picnic without a mat!" Flower said putting down the mat.There we began to eat and chat for a bit."Oh for petals sake Firey! I was gonna eat that!" Flower yelled at Firey as Firey just stuck his tongue out mostly annoying her."OH WHY YOU!" Flower then kicked Firey off the table. Oh c'mon, when i thought there was gonna be no drama. Welp..i guess i have to deal with it."Will you PLEASE be quiet..god." I said starring at them."C-calm down you two! I can get more of those brownies!" Leafy said standing up. I turned my head to Loser who was just watching and eating."These chicken nuggets are amazing! I remember eating these with my friend.."Loser said pointing at the Chicken Nugget."Well thats great! Good to hear." I replied eating a piece of my cake. I looked around. I saw Profily alone by a tree scribbling something on paper. Taco was with Spongy he was wearing some tight friendship bracelet. Gelatin was with Teardrop with Balloony, Bubble was with Ruby mostly talking, Blocky was practically behind Woody ready to mostly prank him."Seems like everyones doing their own thing" i said looking back at everyone who was sitting with her.

[Third Person POV]

Time had passed and everyone had went off to do their own thing.Lollipop was helping Leafy clean up the mess at the picnic table."Hey! Thanks for helping me clean up Lollipop! I really appreciate it! It's very kind of you!" Leafy said enthusiastically."With pleasure to help." Lollipop replied getting back from throwing some cupcake liners and other garbage."I wonder if there's a kitchen so i could wash these dirty dishes!" Leafy said holding a tray of dirty dishes.Hm..i remember Loser telling where the kitchen is earlier.I should take these.." Lollipop said."No! No! It's okay! Just tell me where the kitchen is! You've done a lot! I really appreciate your helpfulness Lollipop so go do your thing!" Leafy replied."If you insist Leafster, Its almost by the Lobby just go left and go straight you'll find the kitchen." Lollipop replied as Leafy walked of and went inside the Hotel.Then Lollipop went of to find her alliance members."Hello Alliance how are you guys?" Lollipop asked as the other two glanced at her."Oh hi Lolly! So, Teardrop just gave me a preview of her newest comic wanna join in?" Gelatin asked as Lollipop nodded and sat beside them in the Lobby."So, it's about this alien taking over the sun and everything turning blue due to its rays?" Lollipop asked and Teardrop nodded."I see...and what happens to the citizens of Yoyle city?" Lollipop asked again as Teardrop took the comic from her."Teardrop doesn't wanna spoil what happens next, since she has given us a preview of it." Gelatin said playing with a fork."So is this another sequel to another book you made?" The purple lollipop asked as Teardrop nodded smiling.

Soon they were at the dinning room with the other objects.Gelatin went into the kitchen and made steak for us."Is this one of the specialties from 'Gelatin's Steakhouse'?" Lollipop asked looking at it."You bet! Probably the best seller as well!" Gelatin said."Four someone messed with the potatoes.." We heard X say."Oh. That isn't my problem." Four replied.As Gelatin gulped.

[Lollipop's POV]

Soon We finished our dinner. And we went to our respective rooms. I was sitting on my bed reading TD's comic flipping the pages because i wasn't sleepy yet. As i was reading i heard a knock at my door. I opened the door to see no one but a small wrapped up box. I look at the card that was on it.

-To Lollipop

"Heya! This is Leafy! I thank you for your kindness earlier! Here! Have this you said you like spoons right? So have this :)"

- From Leafy!

I opened the box to see a spoon with a ribbon wrapped on it."Wonderful! Another spoon! I sure love spoons!" I said closing the door and i kept the spoon. Soon it was late and i was getting sleepy.

So i turned off my lamp and slowly fell asleep.

I wonder what will happen tomorrow..

I'll tell you what will happen tomorrow! A motive! Yeah. See you next chapter.And stuff cause things MIGHT take a turn for the worst

Unexpected Events

[Lollipop's POV]

The day was doing great. I was with my alliance and we were mostly in the library, TD was on a hunt if her comics we're here again.She ran over to me finding another one of her comics."Whats this about?" I asked as she gave me the book and i started looking through it."So you're telling me that, they went on a hunt to get some chunk of emerald and dug underground and suddenly lava came up and those stuff?" I asked. She nodded and started writing on paper.As soon as she finished she handed it over to me and i started to read it."Oh i see.So they just revive after that?" I asked once again. And she nodded."Alright my watery friend."I said reading it.

Time had passed and we were in the playgrounds i was sitting on the sand and Gelatin and Teardrop were on the seesaw."SCREEEEEEEE" A horrible and loud screech was heard from four and in a blink of an eye we were with the others."Yay! They're here! But was the screeching really necessary?"X asked as Four just starred at them."Uhhhhhh...okay then.."X said sighing."Wait why are we even here anyways?" Taco asked."If we're here for no reason im leaving!" Blocky yelled as I heard Woody scream."YEAH!" Then they started complaining as Four just stood there."Uh hello? Four? Foury? Pal? Hello??" Profily said waving his hand Infront of Four as their eyes went to look at Profily."Gah! He's back guys!" Profily yelled."Anyways, sorry for the long pause i was just getting something ready!"Four said. Getting something ready? What is that something..?"Okay, but what is that something you were getting ready or something?" Ruby asked."The motive of course!" Four replied.A motive? Seriously? How desperate is this number for someone to murder somebody?"A motive? What's that for?" Flower asked curiously."A motive is a motivation to kill because..NO ONE WOULD WANT TO KILL! so i decided on having motives for you lazy idiots to fucking do something." Four said as he rolled a TV in and switched it on.There it started to play a slideshow.

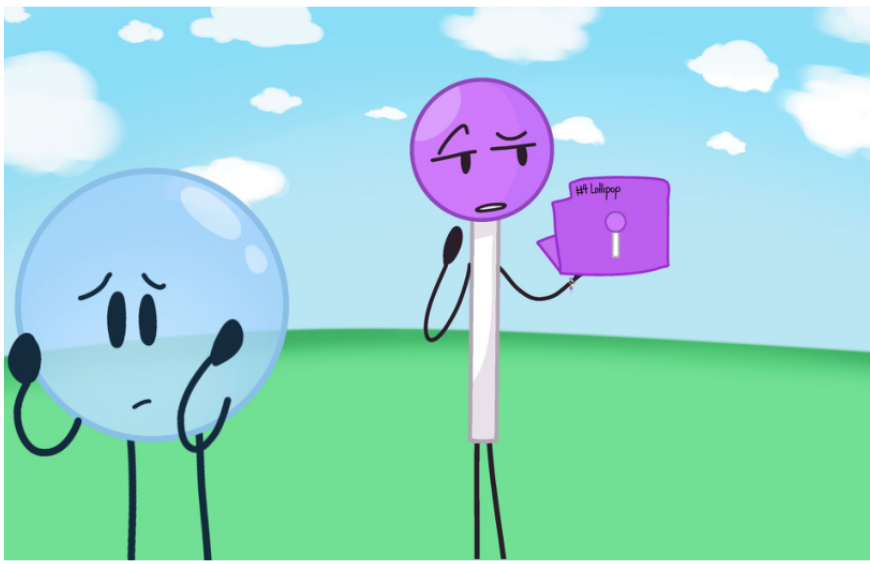
Dear students! Welcome to your first motive. Since you lazy ass bitches wouldn't kill anyone might aswell give you all a motivation to kill each other. Now lets begin!

Motive:

You have 3 days to kill someone. Or else everyone will fade into existence. Not to be seen. Not to be remembered. But if you do. And get away with it you get to leave this island and let everyone else perish.

Thank you. And have fun killing!

There the slideshow ended and the TV was turned off."Anyways there will be a timer on your Digitfile- X..did you hand out their digit files..?" Four said giving X a death glare."Oh! I must have forgotte-" before X could finish that sentence he already got blasted by four instantly killing X."Why must this be so fucking difficult..Anyways since X didn't give you your digitfile, i will." Four said as he snapped his fingers and Digitfiles started falling from the sky. Mine landed next to me and i picked it up.



When i opened it. It was a screen. I turned it on to see a timer.I also saw my information on this file. From my candy flavoring to my exact height and weight."Okay, but four. Seriously, Fading into existence? That sounds completely obscured."I said as Four walked up to me."Well candy girl too bad. Because its possible. Everyone you know and love is gonna forget you as you fade into existence." He said.

[Gelatin's Pov]

I looked at the so called Digitfile. It looked weird. I opened it to see a timer, and my information. Wow! Thats kinda.. creepy.. honestly. I look up to hear Four's voice."Because it's possible. Everyone you know and love is gonna forget you as you fade into existence" Man..he wasn't kidding about that. But. Is this really true? Someone is gonna murder someone? But if we don't we're gonna die either way.. and be forgotten. I don't wanna lose Lolly and TD.. we're an alliance. We're the Newbie Alliance we should never leave each other no matter what. I don't wanna lose them..and i dont want them to lose me. But if i do die..what would happen? Lollipop and TD would be left alone.. solving the case of their dead friend. Those thoughts flooded though my head as i felt a hand on my shoulder."Gelatin, you've been standing here. We tried getting your attention for like the past 4 minutes..well Teardrop was trying to use one of her comics to snap you back to reality but that didn't work." Lollipop said looking at me."Oh! Sorry to worry you both. I was just.. overthinking of this situation..None of you guys will die right? Right?" I asked."Yes Gelatin, us alliance should stick together and look out for each other, and thats why..none of us is dying, that goes for the rest of us in this island." Lollipop said i looked over to Teardrop who gave me a smile and a thumbs up."Hah! Well c'mon lets go have dinner! I'm starving" I said as they both agreed and we went to the kitchen.I prepared some Steak with some mashed potatoes on the side i also decided to make the others because why not."The dinner has been served now pay up! Just kidding!" I teased."Wow, this is like really good!" Ruby said."Well considering im the only one who works at my steakhouse. It makes sense for me to be the only one cooking while also being the manager!" I replied also eating."This is delicious!" Spongy said."Spongy you got a little bit of sauce on your face, wait let me help you." Taco said wiping Spongy's face."These are the most amazing steak ive ever tasted! Thank you dear Gelatin for this amazing dish!" Leafy exclaimed."I mean.. they're good. I guess" Flower said shrugging."Hey! Who did that?!" Balloony asked with mashed potatoes on their face.I looked over to Blocky who was snickering."Gah- what the-" Loser said wiping the mash potato on their face."GASP! WHO THREW MASHED POTATO AT LOSER!?"Firey yelled."Dont like look at me! Look at Mr. ultimate prankster!" Ruby pointed at Blocky who quickly ate the mash potato they were gonna throw."What?" He said swallowing the food."YOU THREW MASHED POTATO AT LOSER'S FACE! YOU FUCKING PRANKSTER!"Firey yelled."NO FOOD FIGHTS OR.. I'LL CALL FOUR!" X yelled out as we all looked at him he was once alive again. I was in the corner drinking apple juice."what?" He asked.After eating i helped out with washing the dishes. Woody, Leafy and Bubble decided to help with washing the dishes."That was spoit oin!" Bubble exclaimed."Thanks bubble!" I said."Anyways i thank you three for helping with the dishes. I expected to wash these my self.!" Leafy said as Woody said something like "No problem"? I wasn't quite sure.

After that i met up with Lollipop and Teardrop that was in the lobby."Oh hello Gelatin, me and teardrop found the so called rules." Lollipop said."Really?" I asked."Pretty much, check your digitfile." She said as i opened my digitfile and turned it on. There was a file that said Rules. I pressed on it and sure thing the rules were there.

Rule 1. Any type of murder will be allowed during this killing game. Just dont try to dispose it.

Rule 2. A body discovery will be trigged after 3 students are present.

Rule 3. You can only kill 1-2 students.

Rule 4. do NOT disobey or make your host angry. Or else.

Rule 5. Any form of harm to the host will suffer a MAJOR penalty.

Rule 6. Dont get caught murdering someone idiot

Rule 7. Any form of harm to the co-host will face my wrath.

Rule 8. Once there is a murder. There will be one hour to investigate the murder. After that will be the class trial Rule 9. Nighttime to Daytime schedule is 11:00P.M to 6:00 A.M you may get up as early as 5 but do not exit the hotel.

Rule 10. When committing a murder. Don't be stupid. I swear.

Man..these rules are so..so...

Ding
Ding
Dong

"Hello. It is your host Four here and i wanted to say that its officially 11PM! Go to bed idiots. Or else die." Four said on the TV of the lobby and it turned off."Well alliance, i guess we can all see each other in the morning." Lollipop said."I guess, goodnight Lolly, Goodnight TD! I'll see you both tomorrow!" I said heading to my room. Soon i entered my room and locked the door.I layed down on my bed and stared at the ceiling.What if they die..what will i do without them. I love them they're like my family. I can't afford to lose them. But i dont wanna die as well. There's so much to do in life. I dont wanna waste that time on a killing game thats complete bullshit! I just dont wanna see them go. Alright gelatin. Stay positive! Theres a low chance that you will die unless you stick together. But how about the others. Theres a chance that they would die. But if no one kills we'll all die. So we have no chance but to kill. What if i..NO GELATIN! Don't think of that. You have no right to kill anyone just to keep your friends safe..maybe theres a away to prevent this..maybe..just maybe..No it's impossible..What ever I'll just think of this in the morning..I turned on my lamp and went to sleep.

[Lollipop's POV]

"Goodnight Teardrop" i said as i lead her to her room and soon went into mine. As soon as i got in i opened the Digitfile."So..we have 3 days if no one kills we'll all die? Its honestly too good go be true. This is clearly a threat to make us kill. Seriously, Fading into existence is impossible. Well Four is some strange creature. Oh well." I said rereading the rules. And soon i closed the digitfile. You think you can make us kill four? Not a chance. Us newbie alliance will stick together. But what kind of idiot would fall for this anyways. Whatever. Its getting late anyways so. Might aswell go to bed. I put the digitfile in a drawer. I made sure the bathroom lights were of, the window and the door was locked before i go to bed. I was pretty sure i done everything then i turned off my lamp and soon went to bed.

So yeah i got lazy at that end part but who cares. Anyways yeah there will be a lot of POV switching between Lollipop and Gelatin so yeah. Find out next time in. Inanimate insa- i gotta stop saying that.

[???'s POV]

???:"So, they're all asleep right?"

??:" Pretty much. I see no one awake so far."

?:"Hey aren't you supposed to be asleep as well?"

???:"How many times do i have to repeat this. Im only here to check out on the current outcome so far of everyone."

?:"Oh..sorry"

??:"Well thing fading into existence motive is pretty dumb"

???:"Look when it comes to thinking of motivations to kill dont depend on me with that, what am i some writer?"

??:"Well we have no choice Its already been announced."

?:"Be right back"

??:"Alright"

???:"Anyways..want to have a bet see who dies first?"

??:"No."

???:"Bu-"

??:"For someone whos betraying these students you seem too naive and dumb"

???:"WHAT?!"

??:"You're do loud!"

???:"Oh be quiet"

??:" Anyways go back to your room shouldn't you like blend in as you said?"

???:"Whatever."

End.? .?.??????????????????????????????????????

An Ultimate Quest

[Gelatin's POV]

I was asleep having a dream of escaping with my alliance and the others until.

Ding!
Ding!
Dong!

"Wake up shithea- i mean contestants! It is officially day time! You may explore the place! Eat breakfast and those stuff..You have 2 days left until you fade into existence! How lovely isn't it? And yes this announcement will go for the rest of your stay in this god forsaken island!"

Four said through the speakers as i almost fell off my bed."God what is their problem.." I muttered. Well all i know is us escaping wasn't real..but it will be someday! I leaped out of bed leaving it as it is and mostly did a normal routine of going to the bathroom and those stuff. After that i went out of my room making sure it was fully closed. Then i tried finding Lollipop and Teardrop. I walked around and found them sitting by a corner in the dining room."Hey guys! Have you eaten yet?" I asked."Why hello gelly boy, and yes we had breakfast." Lollipop replied and i looked to TD who was happily waving at me."Welp i wanted to have breakfast with you guys but oh well! Haha!" I replied as i decided to make some pancakes in the kitchen.

[Lollipop's POV]

As i saw Gelatin walk into the kitchen i turned back to Teardrop who was scripting another comic."Oh? Whats that about next time?" I asked as she turned away not showing me the peice of paper she was writing on. Oh well i guess she didn't want to show her work to prevent spoilers.Soon i saw Gelatin with a plate of pancakes and sat down on the floor beside us."Why not eat on the table?" I asked."Why not" Gelatin answered. I'll let him do what he wants so whatever.I just sat there with my alliance. It was silent until i asked."So. What do you guys want to do today?" I asked."I don't know maybe just out own thing. I can't really think of anything else." Gelatin replied just coming back from the kitchen. I turned my head to Teardrop and she pretty much agreed. "Alright alliance lets just meet up at dinner?" I asked."Sure! I'll see you!' Gelatin said. And i looked back at Teardrop who was already gone. All on my own i guess.

[Gelatin's POV]

I walked outside to see the grassy area surround me. Man. I just wish this wasn't a killing game."Alright what should i do today?" I asked myself looking around. My eyes landed on a certain profile picture sitting on the grass. I walked over to Profily and then said."Hey! Profily!" As i said that i saw them flinch a bit."Oh hiya there Gelatin nice seeing you!" They said. Why not hang out with Profily. I never really got to know them since they're just there so why not get to know them better."So have any plans? If not we can hang out!" I said."Oh! Sure i don't have any plans today anyways! So okay!" They replied standing up from where they sat.We walked along the beach since Profily recommended it."So profily. Do you remember your talent?" I asked as they stopped walking."My talent? Hm..no i just can't remember my Ultimate. Its quite frustrating but i just decided to just give up on it." They replied."Don't give up yet profily! Maybe lets try to do stuff you like and maybe you'll remember it!" I recommended and their face lit up."Really? You'd help me?" They asked excitedly."Mhm! The quest to find your Ultimate starts now!" I replied as they cheered. Soon we sat on the sand building a sand castle."Since you said you like making sand castles maybe you're the.. Ultimate..Sand..Castle Builder..?" I said looking at profily."That's a cool ultimate! But it doesn't seem like my ultimate.." Profily answered.Then we started drawing on paper. I wasn't the best at it i just took small drawing lessons from TD and that's it."So maybe Ultimate Artist." I asked."Nah.. i just make simple doodles.

"It's basically me but royalty.!" They said."So like..King Profily?" I replied."No silly! Im Nonbinary i go by They and Them!" They said."Oh sorry! But still you draw better than me!" I answered."Well thanks but yeah. I don't really think im the ultimate artist." Profily replied. We spent the whole afternoon trying to find out their talent.Hey we couldn't really find anything but atleast it was like a cool adventure!"Man. Not even in my DigitFile? C'mon!" Profily said frustrated."Hey, hey, look at the bright side at least we had fun as i helped you!" I said happily."Maybe you're right! Thanks a lot Gelatin!" They hugged me and i hugged them back.

Soon it was dinner time and we were eating dinner.It seemed like Lollipop grew closer to bubble! Thats nice!"Anyways, Hey Gelatin what did you do today hm?" Lollipop asked looking at me."Oh! I helped Profily find out their ultimate but..sadly we couldn't figure out. But we did enjoy on our small adventure." I said as Teardrop gave me a piece of paper that said." Can you tell me about it? Is it like some adventure quest thingy? Maybe i could make it into a comic that would be nice!" Wow! I comic gee! Perks of having a friend who makes comics!"Well lets see..We went to make a sand castle..We decided to draw stuff.."I continued to talk as i looked over to profily who was eating. Im so glad i helped some today even though we couldn't do anything to help the Ultimate talent issue atleast they seem happy. After that we stayed in the lobby mostly talking.

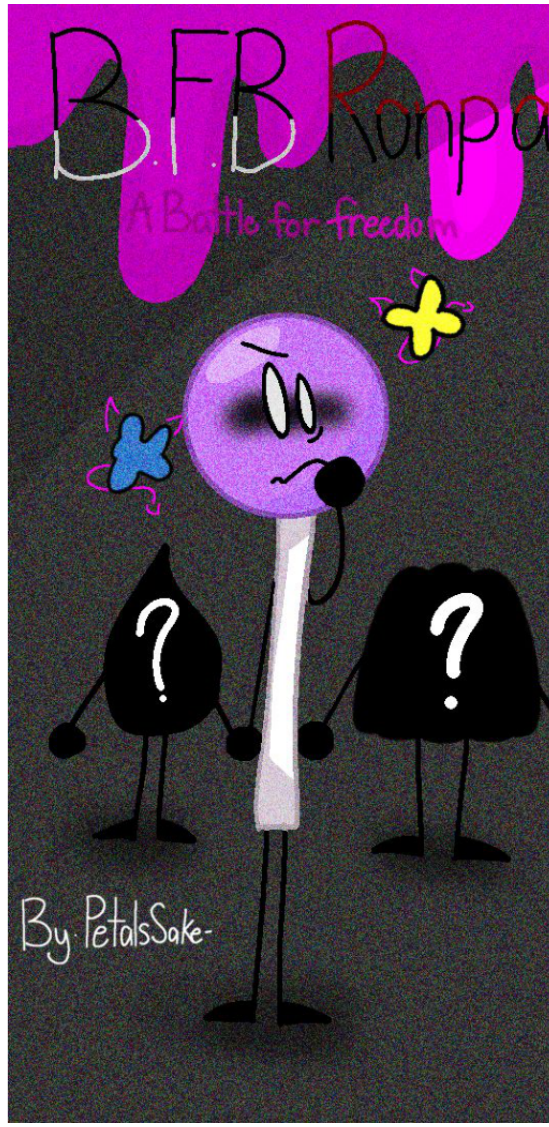
"Hello there and it's time to announce that its officially 11PM! Go to bed you lazy bums!" Four said over the speaker and i stood up."Welp! I guess its time to go to bed before Four punishes us for stay up late." I said laughing. I went over to my suite and locked the door. I made sure that the windows were closed. I promise.. we'll get out of this place. But at least..

I grew closer to someone today.

Ooh yuh. New chapter. I wonder what will happen next👀 and yes this chapter is kinda lazy when i was writing it so sorry about that!

A/N 1

Greetings and Salutations it is your author. PetalsSake- mostly known as Xen, Aleph or Yin here ready to deliver some news.



This is gonna be the cover for the book. Thats it.

Special Picnic Party

[Lollipop's POV]

Here it is. Our final day together, we're gonna fade into existence i guess. Time to make our last moments memorable."Good morning alliance." I said looking over to them. Gelatin looked like he hasn't slept all night, as for teardrop seems like she was scared but was just hiding it."Did you guys sleep well?" I asked them to snap them back to reality."Yeah, i did! I'm just..worried." Gelatin said as Teardrop nodded."Oh good morning you three, Whats with like the long faces?" Ruby asked."Oh. Well it's because of today." Gelatin replied."Uh..like, what about today?" Ruby said in a confused tone."Well Ruby, It's just that today, if no one kills we'll all just die." I said."Oh! Right..." Ruby's confused expression turned into a sad one."Maybe we would like. Make this moments memorable with like everyone! Some little get together and such!" Ruby recommended."You're quite the bright one, Ruby. Im impressed." I said looking down at the red gem."Well..maybe a picnic! Oh my collagen! Maybe i could whip up something in the kitchen while we're at it!" Gelatin said rushing to the kitchen."Well, maybe lets tell the others about this. So they make sure to come." I suggested."Okay! I'll go tell Flower!" Ruby replied skipping away happily."Alright, come on teardrop we have work to do." I said. As teardrop gave me a thumbs up.

"Ooh! A picnic! Thats wonderful! I'll make sure to tell the others!"Leafy happily said.

"That's 1.." i said."Oh..a picnic? Sure! Why not!" Loser said reading a book by the tree."Alright we got Loser.. who's next."

"Oh sure! Why not? I'll be there!" Balloon exclaimed happily. "Alright then. Man TD this is honestly tiring.." i said walking off.

Its been 50 minutes and we pretty much got everyone to join. They were pretty much aware that the picnic starts in an hour. Bubble and Gelatin we're still making food. Teardrop had to go get comics at the book store and mostly i was sitting at the picnic table with Ruby and Flower."Man. Spending these last few hours is kinda scary, like we know were gonna die soon." Ruby said."Don't say that Ruby! Sheesh. Its.. freaking me out." Flower said."Oh, I'm sorry Flower do you want me to sing you a song to make you feel bette-" "No. Please don't the last song you sang for me is quite concerning." "Oh alright then." Ruby and Flower seemed to have form a stable relationship. I see.."Hey guys" Loser said arriving."Hello there Loser. How are you today?" I asked."I'm doing good." Loser replied sitting down."Yo yo! We're here with pies!" Blocky said holding two pies and Woody was holding a bunch of pies."For the love of four Blocky, is that for smearing over faces or for eating." I asked looking at the dozen of pies woody was holding." Hm..What if i said it was for both?" Blocky asked. "I wouldn't enjoy th-" before i could finish that my face was met with the pie.I heard a bunch of laughter as i removed the pie tray."Ha. Ha. How funny" I said not impressed at all. Time flew by and mostly everyone was there. "Alright! Everyone dig in!" Gelatin exclaimed. As we all began to eat and talk. Everyone seemed to be enjoying. Thats good.

[Gelatin's POV]

Everyone was talking and eating. I felt so happy. I was sitting right between Lollipop and Teardrop. I can't believe life is so short. But at least i can spend my last moments with my alliance."Okay, so spongy where's the friendship bracelet i gave you hm?" Taco said."I dont know..sorry.." Spongy replied."You lost it?! What about our friendship spongy!" Taco replied disappointed."Oh c'mon now Taco, maybe he just misplaced it!" Leafy said."Mhm..i guess" Taco said looking back at her food."Bleh! Why is this pie salty?!" Firey exclaimed spitting out the pie."HAHA! One of my pies had salt in it!" Blocky replied laughing."Woiw! This is really goid food!" Bubble said."Hah! One of my specialties!" I replied proudly."Hey! Blocky stop that!" Balloony yelled."What? You look stupid like this!" Blocky replied snickering."You are so fucking annoying!" Balloony said eating the pie that was on his head."Hey TD, what do you think of the food so far?" I asked Teardrop looking at her. She gave me a simple thumbs up.Soon the picnic ended and we all did our own things. I was left with Lollipop."So what do you wanna do on your birthday, its right around the corner you know." Lollipop asked."Honestly i don't know..." I said. I forgot the fact that it was almost my birthday! Gosh time flies."Maybe if we ever get out of here..i could treat you and Teardrop to dinner?"Lollipop suggested."Thats a good idea.50 minutes passed and Me, Lollipop and Teadrop we're in the beach playing in the sand. Lollipop was just sitting there reading one of teardrop's comic. What should we name this? Maybe..Gelly..drop.. Gellydrop.."I said. As Teadrop wrote on her notepad and gave me a piece of paper as i read it."Alliland?..OH! Like alliance and land?" I asked."Well Alliland is is" i said happily.We we're building until...

"AHHH! OH MY GOD!"

We heard someone scream. We were all shocked Lollipop shot up from the sand. And we started walking back. We wanted to see what was going on. Soon we bumped into Taco who look traumatized and some others trailing behind us."Woah there! Are you alright Taco?!" I asked as she fell into my arms. She was trembling in fear as she pointed to a direction."Lead the way Taco." Lollipop said as Taco started running and we followed her. It seemed like the direction to the playground why are we going there did something happe- ...

Oh no.

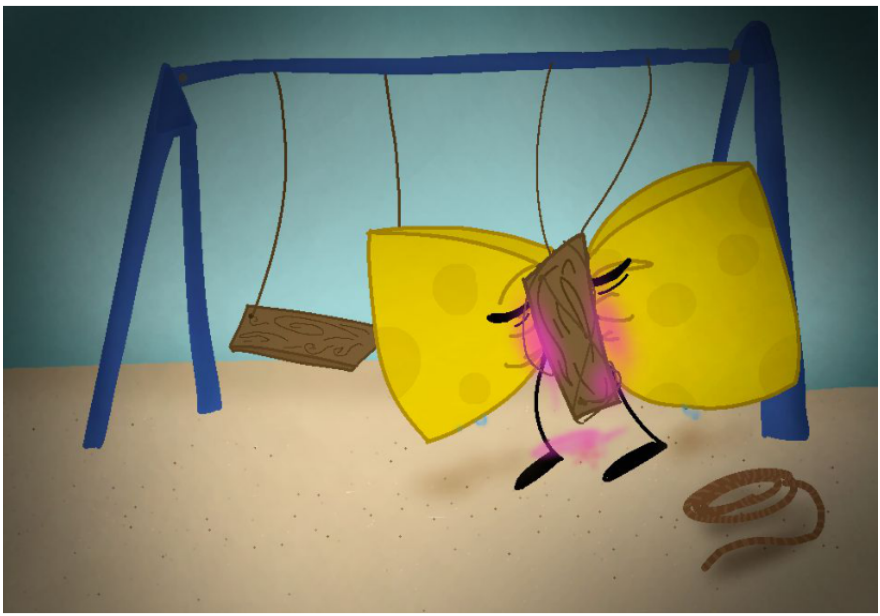
Investigation Time #1



[Lollipop's POV]

I was shaken at that very moment. Spongy was there dead. He was swinging around as blood and water was dripping from him. Then.

Ding!

Ding!

Dong!

"A body has been discovered! Now. After a few hours of investigation,The class trial will begin!"

Four said through the speaker. Then we heard X."So Foury said that i was in charge of this. So contestants please check your digitfile and you will see info about spongy's death." The yellow variable said. As i brought my digitfile out and turned it on. Sure thing it was the info of Spongy's death.

Victim's name: Spongy
Cause of Death: Strangulation
Location of Body: Playground on the swings
Time of death: 7:02 PM
Body found: 7:23 PM

This is truly strange. But who cares we need to investigate."Hey whats that over there?" Flower said pointing at something our eyes landed on the rope that was beside the swing.

"The murder could've possibly left this at the crime scene." I said picking it up.

Truth Bullet!
-DigitFile - info of Spongy's Death

-Rope - Found on the sand beside Spongy

"I think we should investigate more.Theres no way these are the only clues" Gelatin said."Well we should start with everyone's alibi's first." I replied walking over to the first person who found the body.Taco. "So, Taco what we're you doing before Spongy died." I asked raising an eyebrow."Well for starters i was in my room sorting stuff out. Then i wanted to look for spongy to say sorry to him because of the picnic i asked Blocky if he had saw Spongy and the last place he saw him was the play ground. And as i got there he was already dead." Taco said sniffling a bit."I see. Thanks for telling me then" So then Blocky saw Spongy there.. interesting..

Truth Bullet

Taco's account - she claimed to be sorting out her work until she wanted to find Spongy, She ask Blocky if he had seen Spongy, and he claimed he saw him at the Playground. But as Taco went to the playground Spongy was already dead.

With that given information i walked over to Blocky."Hey blockster, Tell me. When was the last time you saw Spongy?" I asked. Stupid question if i say so myself but nows not the time."Oh uh. He was here. Or something on the seesaw." Blocky said."So was he with anyone?" I replied."Uh..i did see someone with him but i mostly forgot." Blocky replied."Alright think thats all i needed to know

Truth Bullet!

Blocky's account - Blocky had saw Spongy at the playground still alive with someone but he forgot who it was.

I looked at Spongy's dead body feeling bad for the poor sponge. I was about to leave the playground until i saw a bunch out sand out of the playground."Hey Gelatin, can you come here for a sec." I said bending down to the pile of sand trailing."What is it Lollipop?" He asked walked to me."Look at this. There seems like a bunch of sand trailing over to the hotel."I said."Well any one could've been here. And gone to the hotel." Gelatin replied looking at me."Well if they we're only walking over to the hotel why is there so much sand?" I asked as Gelatin looked back at the trail of sand."Maybe the killer was careless enough to trip and fall not sure." Oh well. We'll figure this out soon.

Truth Bullet!

Trail of sand: a strange trail of sand leading to the hotel.

I stood back up and my eye caught teardrop waving at us. I gently gave Gelatin a nudge making him look at teadrop."Whats wrong TD?" I asked walking over with gelatin. She was pointing at something. I looked closer and saw bits of.. lettuce? I looked even closer. It pretty much had brown patches on it meaning its been here for quite a long time now."This could be useful information. Lets go." I said.

Truth Bullet!

Bits of lettuce- A patch of lettuce was found in the sand. It seems its been there for a while.

As i walked i was suddenly pulled back. I turned around to see Teardrop grabbing my arm as gelatin looked at the looked at the place they were stepping on."Look at the amount of sand here from where you're sanding over there. Doesn't it seem like the body was dragged? And theres bloodstains, Just a bit" Gelatin said as i look a closer look."Huh. I does look like it. Well if thats one of the clues, can we go now? Also. TD let go of me please will you?" I said as Teardrop quickly let go of her hands on mine.

Truth Bullet!

Dry Bloodstains - Those blood stains came from spongy.

We finally got out of the playground at last and we saw Blocky and Woody looking as something and we went up to them."Hey Blocky, Woody. Whats that?" Gelatin asked."Oh. Well i just saw these broken binoculars on the ground. This has gotta be a clue right?." Blocky asked. Binoculars? Could the culprit drop this? Maybe. And theres only one person who could've had this."Pretty much a clue. This could be useful for trial.

Truth Bullet!

Broken Binoculars - These binoculars were left be the culprit most likely they either tripped and it broke or accidentally dropped it.

"Welp cool we found a clue. C'mon Woody." Blocky said walking away as Woody was trailing behind him."Wait! Wait up!" He said trying to catch up to Blocky."Well as we know there could only be one person who couldve had this right?" I said as they both nodded catching up to the case. We walked to see Profily by the shed with Leafy and Firey. We went over to them."Oh hello there you three!" Profily happily greeted us with a smile. They were surprisingly happy.after the recent events? Thats weird."Heya Profily! Hello aswell Firey and Leafy!" Gelatin greeted them."Hello dear friend!" Leafy said."Anyways why are you three here?" I asked."Show it firey" Leafy said and i looked over to Firey who had a bloody hammer. There was some blood on the handle but none on the upper part. Thats strange."Ew. I have- oh wait nevermind the blood is dried." Firey said putting down the hammer.

Truth bullet!

Hammer - this hammer seems to only have blood on its handle. Weird.

"Oh yeah while i was making my way here i found this!" Profily said pulling out something

A picture of Loser? And someone else? "Hey! Is that Loser?! Let me see! Let me see!" Firey exclaimed trying to grab the picture from profily."Hold on whos that beside loser though?" Gelatin asked."From the looks of it. Seems like Winner!" Profily replied.Winner?"Who is Winner.. exactly?" I asked."Oh! Before Loser used to work with Winner then Loser decided to fly solo!" Profily replied."Well who ever had this must be a big fan of Loser and Winner!" Profily chuckled.Huh. the killer might have dropped this.who knows..

Truth Bullet!

Picture - It's an old picture of Loser and Winner. Thats it.

"Alright lets conti-" As Gelatin was about to finish his sentence he was interrupted.

Ding!

Ding!

Dong!

"You're time is up! And it's the moment you've been waiting for! Class Trial! Please head to the Lobby and let X escort you to our class trial room!"

"Aw man! Already? Bummer." Firey said."Welp i guess its time for trial.." Gelatin said as we all went in the lobby everyone else was there."13...14... Everyone's here! Yay!!! Anyways everyone follow me to the elevator!" X said walking as we followed him."So like. How do we get there?" Ruby asked."You'll see" X replied.After walking for a while we got to an elevator. X pressed the button and the door opened."Okay all of you go in" X said as we went in. It was a normal elevator it was quite spacious to fit us inside."Going down everyone!" X said pushing the button and the doors closed.So. one of us murdered poor Spongy. One of us here. Committed crime. This. Will not be accepted.

Hell yeah! Investigation chapter! Oooh i wonder who's gonna die! Oh wait i know who dies. I made the script.

Chapter 1: Trial 1a

Some simple guide for the dialogue

Lollipop: (text) = Thoughts

Lollipop: Text = talking

Student: Text (Text) = The one in the open and closed parentheses is Lollipop's thoughts

Student: Text text = Either something to agree on or not to agree on

[Third Person]

The contestants fell silent as the elevator descended deeper and deeper. Everyone looked at each other knowing one of the was the killer of Spongy. Lollipop was giving Taco a stare. She knew that she had something to do with this crime. Some of the clues even lead to her."So uh guys. What do you all want to do after this?" Profily asked breaking the silence. Everyone's eyes were on them. Profily looked at them and replied."On second thought nevermind pretend you never heard me!" Lollipop looked over to X who was just sitting by the corner drinking a box of apple juice.For someone whos the co host? Of this killing game. He doesn't seem to intimidating. So, i guess he's just under four's protection. Lollipop thought to herself. She looked over to Gelatin he looked pretty nervous. He doesn't enjoy seeing dead bodies at all. I mean. Gelatin is pretty much a child if you ask me. Lollipop put her hand on gelatin's shoulder reassuring him. She did the same for teardrop. You can't leave one alliance member out. We're basically a team. She thought

Ding!

"Okay everyone we're here!" X happily said standing up and the door open. Everyone exited the elevator and was greated with the trial room. There were podiums. Nothing special. But one thing did stand out from the other podiums. One of the podiums had a stand with Spongy's picture on it. It had pink planes overlapping each other to form an X."Alright. Get to your assigned podium. Before i get impatient." Four said as the students went to look for their podiums.As the 14 got to their assigned podiums Four explained how the class trial will work."Alright lets discuss the rules of the CLASS TRIAL! You all will present your arguments on who you think the killer is! And vote for who killed the victim! If you get it right only the blackened will receive punishment! Get it wrong and you all except the blackend will be on deep trouble...As you all face punishment the blackend will be free to leave the island and live peacefully! Well that is if you get the killer right. Well thats all for the rules of this trial! Now, begin!"

[Arrangement of the students]

[Lollipop's POV]

Lollipop:(So. I don't want to jump into conclusions right away. I have to listen to what everyone has to say first.)

Bubble: So! As wei knoiw Spongy was killed in the playground (Kinda obvious)

Text to speech: Yes we know that Bubble.

Lollipop:(We looked over to where the sound was coming from. Teardrop had a text to speech with her.)

Text to speech: what? (Oh)

Profily: Back to the topic, so spongy was only tied on the swings. Wouldn't that mean. The rope is the actual weapon?

Lollipop: I agree with that statement!

Profily: Oh! Cool! Uh hey what n-

Lollipop: It's practically impossible for spongy to just die from being on that swing. It seemed like that thing was for show only.

Leafy: Huh? What do you mean

Lollipop: I mean by that is Spongy couldn't have died from being tied like some bow on that swing. As you know there was Rope that was beside spongy's corpse.

Flower: uh yeah. But why would the killer just leave it out on the open?

Lollipop: Maybe it's because. They dropped it.

???: THAT REASON SEEMS UNCLEAR!

Lollipop: (My eyes widened to hear the voice. I looked over to Taco who yelled that out.)

Taco: No killer would've left that so easily! As i noticed earlier there was sand that was dragged so Spongy's body could've been dragged from the outside to the inside! Meaning the rope was a setup

Lollipop:(Wait that doesn't sound right.. because there was)

-No dragged sand

-There was a trail of sand leading to the hotel <

Lollipop: Let me stop you right there!

Taco:Huh?!

Lollipop: Taco you're right about one thing. The body was sure dragged but not from the outside. Don't forget there was some trail of sand leading to the hotel.

Taco: Your point?

Lollipop:Well what im saying is that the dead body was stranged with the rope but was also dragged to the swing. And the culprit could've tripped as they we're escaping the crime scene.

Taco: That makes sense..I guess..

Blocky: Taco, Taco, Taco, trying to change up the murder scene to get away of killing a close friend of yours

Lollipop: (Hm? Whats this)

Taco: W-what do you mean?!

Lollipop: (Eyes were on Blocky as he grabbed a peice of paper)

Blocky: Hey! Candy pop! What's Taco's Alibi?

Lollipop: (Me? Asking me?)

Lollipop: She claimed that she had stuff to sort out in her room. Then she wanted to go-

Blocky: Thank you for that Candy ball. Anyways, Was this? The thing you were working on fished it from out of your bag.

Lollipop: (We looked at Blocky who was waving the peice of paper in the air. I was rather confused of this situation but lets just let Blocky have his testimony.)

Taco: What do you mean Blocky? What is that nonsense?

Blocky:Well not me. But Woody help me get this. Anyways. Ahem. Ahem.

Lollipop: (Blocky cleared his throat as he began to read)

Blocky: June 18 6:15 PM. I am writing this to take note to make sure i won't forget. Who am i kidding i probably wont because my life is on the line.

Lollipop: (June 18? That was 2 days ago. But how long are we gonna be here its around night time by now..)

Blocky: I have to think of the perfect time to execute my plan. Most likely on the third day. Mostly the easiest way to kill spongy is to strangle him to death.

Lollipop: (then Blocky stopped reading it. I looked to taco who was silent)

Firey: So Taco killed Spongy?!

Ruby: Hm...Seems like it.

Balloony:Taco could be just framed no way taco would do that! Its unlikely of her!

Loser: Well...She did already have the plan with her. Blocky even said so...

Lollipop: (and everyone is starting another argument again..)

Gelatin: If it were someone else. Why would there be lettuce. Taco's lettuce

Text to speech: Don't forget the broken binoculars exclamation point

Text to speech:wait what-

Leafy:Well as we heard. She did make a plan Two days ago.

Lollipop: Your statement is incorrect!

Leafy:Huh?! Did i say something wrong?

Lollipop: Well yes. As the date of the letter said it was written two days ago. According to Taco's Account She was sorting stuff there. And if that stuff was the plan the date would've been June 20 instead of June 18.Now Blocky care to explain this thing?

Blocky:Well...I witnessed the murder!

All but Blocky, 4 & X: WHAT?!

Haha!!! Cliffhangers! Wait for the part 2 of the class trial!

Chapter 1: Trial 1b

All but Blocky, 4 & X: WHAT?!

Blocky: Heard me right i witnessed the murder. Myself.Now care to explain Taco?

Taco:BLOCKY CUT THIS NONSENSE!

Blocky:Be quiet i saw you murder Spongy.

Taco:I WAS TRYING TO FIND SPONGY. NOT MURDER HIM.

Blocky:But you were careless to leave so much evidence. I mean stupid enough to leave this

Lollipop:(I watch Blocky and Taco argue as Blocky waved the paper in the air again)

Bubble: I beloieve Taco isn't the koiller!

Firey: Seriously?! Didn't you hear what Taco wrote?! Are you deaf or just fucking dumb bubble?

Loser: Taco is pretty guilty. I mean the note seemed legit..and the binoculars.

Firey:See?! Even Loser agrees!

Woody:Well! uh.. Taco! Is! The killer! Yeah!

Blocky: Glad you're on my side Woodster.

Flower:Hey! Dont forget about the Trail of sand!

Loser:Huh? What does that have to do

Flower: Well. Due to the measurements. It definitely isn't taco!

Ruby:Huh? Measurements?

Flower:Yeah! The amount of sand and how it was layed out doesn't seem like taco!

Lollipop:Thats weird? How do you even know that.

Flower: i sometimes take measurements of you guys to see what sizes you are to make sweaters and clothing in your sizes

Taco:Okay Flower that's creepy.

Gelatin:Back to the topic! Theres no way it could've been Taco! I feel like.. someone set them up!

Balloony:What?!

Gelatin: Mhm! Not quite sure but just a strong guess.

Profily: I'm in with gelatin!

Text To Speech: Not quite sure..My suspicions on Taco are rising. Rapidly.

Gelatin:Teardrop?! Really?

Text to Speech: I meant what i said Gelatin! Im sorry..

Leafy: No way Taco did it!

Firey: Great even you

Leafy: I'm sorry firey. But i believe its a setup

Lollipop: (this is not going to end well.)

Bubble: Thois ois hard! We're evenly divoided on our opinions!

Firey: Bubbles right! How the heck do we agree on this if all of us is evenly dividend on behalf of our opinions

Profile: You-

"HOLD THE PHONE!"

Lollipop: (We all stopped bickering after hearing four)

Four:Oho! What do i see? The FOURteen students-

X: Contestants

Four: __Screech__

Four: The Fourteen Students having even amounts on the argument? This calls for a SCRUM DEBATE!

Ruby: A rum debate?

Four:NO! YOU IDIOT! A SCRUM DEBATE

Leafy: Whats a scrum debate?

Four:Well a scrum debate is where you fourteen will be split into two teams. Then you guys will mostly argue your opinions against each other! Then after that you guys would pretty much come to the conclusion if Taco's the killer or not! Now let it begin!

Lollipop: (As four said that our podium started shaking and moving to the point that we were both in a straight line facing each other)

Four: Now that that's settled let the scrum debate begin!

Lollipop: (I crossed my fingers and kept my hopes up that nothing would go wrong)

Firey: Hey didn't Taco form an alliance with Spongy? Probably Taco only did it to get Spongy's trust and kill him

???: I'll do this you cant count on me!

Gelatin: Yes he did! but theres no way Taco would kill an Alliance member just to get out of this predicament!

Balloony: Taco was the only one who knew Spongy. Who else would she kill?

???: I'll take this from here buddies!

Profily: But still how come she didn't even know that Spongy was dead. Of course its because she didn't kill him!

Ruby: Yeah but like theres so much proof against your statements!

???:Observe me! Please!

Flower: Do you mean Proof that could've been a set up to frame Taco?

Woody:Oh yea??? Wut about the! uh.. weapon that killed Spongy?

???: Let me interfere!

Taco: The weapon was in plain sight! The killer who you guys assume is me wouldn't leave it there that easily!

Text to speech(TD): Well there were footprints out of the sandbox leading to the hotel. Maybe Taco was in the rush to hide the evidence before she was witnessed

???: Loit me have a go!

Bubble: Taco could've done that! If she was in a rush, wiould've she bring the murder weipon with hoir?

Loser: But that doesn't explain the hammer that was covered with blood..

???:I would gladly take this turn!

Leafy: The hammer could've been drenched with the blood as Spongy was dripping blood!

Blocky: Well we don't even know the truth if Taco's playing dumb or not!

???:Yes, yes I'll take this from here.

Lollipop:Well we'll know the truth after we all agree about this predicament.

Lollipop: (We continued to argue about which of our statements were right until we finally did)

"We finally have our conclusion!"

-BREAK!-

Lollipop: (suddenly our podiums started moving again and it was rearranged back into the circle formation. Then i brought up the courage to start speaking again)

Lollipop: As we said Taco is not the culprit. A certain someone is framing her.

Blocky:Whatttt??? No way candy pop. As i said I witnessed the murder.

Leafy:Hey who knows you might be the one who's lying! Meanie!

Lollipop: (And once again a debate was starting)

Profily: Well blocky is suspicious now. Hes the one thats been blaming taco in the first place

Ruby: Yeah as we like know. But as he said. He witnessed the murder!

Gelatin: But we cant determine if thats actually the case here (Indeed. Gelatin)

Loser: Well as Blocky stated he saw the whole thing. Right?

Blocky: Yep! Spongy was alone. Before Taco walked in and killed him!

Lollipop: THAT STATEMENT IS COMPLETELY FALSE!

Blocky: What do you mean?!

Lollipop: Blocky, Blocky. Didn't you mention in your testimony, that you saw Spongy with someone and forgot who it was before Taco came in and asked you?

Lollipop: (as i said that he went silent. Then he started to burst out in laughter like some maniac)

Blocky: IT'S A PRANK! HAHAHAHA! I GOT YOU GUYS GOOD!

Lollipop: (Excuse me? Did he seriously prank us during a murder case? How immature of him)

Balloony: It's a WHAT?!

Blocky: You should've seen your faces! Especially you. Taco, you were so scared and almost tried facing defeat.

Taco:THIS WAS A SET UP TO FRAME ME?! WE ALL COULD'VE DIED BLOCKY!
YOU FUCKING MORON!

Blocky: Take a chill pill Taco. Its a prank.

Gelatin: GUYS! guys. Lets just calm down.. and move on to the subject of who could've killed Spongy now.

Lollipop: Right past is past.

Ruby:Like, agreed.

Leafy:Oh yeah theres one more thing i gotta ask.

Flower: Huh? And what would that be huh?

Leafy: Earlier me Firey, Profily, Gelatin, Lollipop and Teardrop discovered a picture of Loser and..uh

Profily: Winner

Leafy: A picture of Loser and Winner! Though winner was crossed out along with the hammer!

Firey: Yeah! And the hammer's tip was the only thing that had blood. On it.

Lollipop: (Well..yeah. no one seems to know about Winner but Loser. Profily has only heard of winner. But theres no one else like Loser who knows.)

Lollipop:(Then i slowly tried to peice things together.)

The motive was that if no one killed anyone in three days.. we would disappear.. not to be seen..nor..Nor remembered! Loser is the Ultimate TV Star and he cares about this popularity status more than anything. If Loser fades away into existence. That means his popularity would go aswell. And he wouldn't want that. So he tried to be friends with someone..most likely spongy to fall for his trap. And he did.

All of this was coming together now. Everything was making sense!

Lollipop: Care to explain something. Loser? (As i said that the whole room silenced once more)

Loser:What do you mean.

Lollipop: oh i don't know, being careless enough to leave so much hints?

Firey: Are you saying Loser killed spongy?!

Lollipop:Indeed i am. Hey Four whats the motive again.

Four:tell them X.

X:Oh! Uhm if no one kills in the next 3 days. You will fade into existence not to be remembered or seen! Was that right Four?

Four:Mhm! Great job X

Lollipop:Now. Loser. Don't you want your fame to stay so bad. That you killed someone just to keep your name up and running?

Loser:I- yes but that doesn't me-

Lollipop: You've left so much clues! The rope! You even tripped and didn't even bother washing the hammer in such a rush. And you even left a picture of you and your old buddy winner.

Firey:HEY WHY ARE YOU SUDDENLY BLAMING HIM! IS IT BECAUSE TACO WAS PROVED INNOCENT!

Lollipop:(I knew this wasn't gonna be easy. Well theres just one way to settle this)

(Firey Argument Armament)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BhbM-HXCJbY

Firey:...

Lollipop: Alright we got that all figured out. Have something to say Firey?

Firey: Whatever.

Profily: Like being in an action movie! Woo!

Lollipop: Everything is settled out. Now Loser. Any words to mutter out now?

Gelatin: You're pretty much on thin ice now.

Loser: I...

Lollipop: (Loser paused for a while before speaking again)

Loser:I killed Spongy.

Lollipop:(As loser said that the room was filled with sudden gasps.)

Firey: Loser! You dont really mean that right.

Loser: I did..I murdered Spongy

Blocky: Mhm. Caught red handed. I saw.

Balloony: You can't be serious!

Loser: Hey, Lollipop. You seem to be good at this..what about you explain this?

Text to speech: Can you do this? Lollipop i can do this for you-

Lollipop: With pleasure.

Lollipop: (Loser looked at me having a smile on his face. Was he.. accepting his faith?... I gathered up all i knew about the case and then started talking.)

Lollipop:

Act 1:

After the motive. The blackend knew that they had do something to keep their name remembered from generations to come. Thats why they planned a murder. They had to kill someone, but who? Well that answer to that is Spongy, they were already good pals, so they just needed to get him trust them more. Thats why they decided to murder Spongy.

Act 2:

Then their plan was a go on the third day. But soon their plans were foiled as me, Gelatin, Teardrop and Ruby planned the picnic. So they decided to execute the plan after the picnic. After the picnic the plan was a go. They grabbed the hammer from the shed and some rope aswell. Then they just tried to get a good time on when to kill spongy. Finally they saw Spongy alone at the playground. They tried to play it cool by just spending time with him. After that they pretended to leave to get their stuff. As Spongy was still in the playground. He snuck behind spongy and knocked him out with a hammer's end. Then strangled him to death.With the strangulation, blood was squeezed out ending up on the end of the hammer a bit. But little did they know Blocky saw the whole thing. They left in a panic accidentally tripping and leaving a large amount of sand with him. They ran as fast as they could to the shed and just left the hammer there. But as they ran out but he left a picture of Them and Winner. And just waited for the body discovery. Or Taco screaming. Then as they saw the body. They already knew someone messed with it to frame someone else which was Taco, But as they were careless they left too much clues behind.

"Isn't that right."

"Loser, Ultimate TV Show star?"

Loser:..Seems about right..

Leafy:Loser...

Ruby: ...

Firey: Just like that?! Loser you cant throw your life away! What will us supporters do?!

Four:You done? Im tired. Its so late right now. Oh well. Voting time idiots! Vote on the screen on your podium! Vote wisely..

Lollipop: (As four said that the screen on the podium turned on showing our icons. My hand hovered to Loser's icon and i tapped on it voting for loser.)

Lollipop: (I looked to Loser who had the face of admitting defeat.)

After a small amount of time everyone finished voting.

Four: Alright! Got the votes! X! Show the votes!

X: So everyone has no vote, Taco has 1 vote and..Loser has 13 votes!

Firey:Wait.. Loser! You voted yourself

Profily: Plot twist! Haha!

Taco: rolls her eyes

Leafy: Really?!

Four: but are you guys right?? Lets see..

A TV showed up and show Loser's icon with 13 votes.

Correct!

Four: And Loser! Is the killer! Feeling like a sore loser right now am i right? Welp me and X have an execution just for our Ultimate TV Show Star! That will make you all star struck!

Firey: LOSER PLEASE GET OUT!

Four: Let's give it all we've got!

Firey: LOSER RUN!

Four: Its... Punishment time!!!

X brought out a red button and gave it to four and soon four pushed the button.

HAHA! FINALLY DONE WITH THIS!
This took so long istg

☆ The Fall of a star ☆

Loser has been found guilty! Time FOUR the punishment!

The cube had accepted their faith of death. Firey begged him to run. But he calmly stood there waiting for his demise. Suddenly cuffs came out of nowhere and cuffed both Loser's hands and legs and dragged him off to his final destination. Suddenly the tv started flickering and the channel changed and showed loser. He was strapped to a giant star suspended in the air. As millions of Four and X's duplicates cheered in excitement. It mostly said it was on live with the caption of the show saying

"TV Show Star Loser meeting his loss?"

At that very moment. Firey,Woody,Flower,Blocky and even Taco we're dragged into their execution. As the other that were left nervously watched. The five other students were strapped to stars aswell. Then the words vote to save someone appeared on a giant screen behind them and letters under brackets appeared aswell then the duplicates pulled out their phones and started voting. Soon. It was time to show the votes.

"Loser. We have a message for you."

Suddenly the others disappeared and were brought back go the trial room besides for Loser.

"Despite. "

First safe was shown. It was Firey with 11,621 votes. Then a gunshot was fired almost hitting Loser. He had a sigh of relief. Well just for a while

"Your."

Second safe was shown. It was woody with 10,646 votes. The second gun shot was fired this time. It was on his left leg. He started to scream in pain as he started to attempt to break free.

"Popularity."

Third safe was shown. It was Flower with 8,024 votes. Third gun shot was fired at his other leg. Screams of pain were heard from the cube. Everyone on the other hand was watching in terror.

"You've."

Fourth safe was shown. It was Blocky 8021 votes respectively. Fourth gunshot was fired. Now this time it was his left arm. Loser still was screaming in pain trying to break free. But each time he does. The wounds start to hurt even more. His eyes start to look lifeless by the second.

"Got."

And the last and final person safe was Taco. With 8002 votes respectively. The gun fired at his other arm as the contestants in the trial room were screaming in fear. Some were having a mental breakdown even. Loser seemed tired from the screaming and couldn't break free.

Then he closed his eyes.

"Eliminated"

As those words were said the last gun shot was aimed directly at his head. And there he had his final breaths and died on spot. He could finally find peace. Though he only did this so he wouldn't fade into existence. But. He couldn't do anything to change his fame status now. Atleast he has his hopes in the afterlife.

Hopefully.

Just like that.

[Third person POV]

And just like that the Ultimate TV Show star was dead right before them. Firey stood there soon he fell to his knees. He couldn't cry knowing it would hurt him since he's Fire."It's your fault!" Firey yelled at Four and X. X looked stunned as Four seemed not bothered at all."Oh no! Can't Firey accept the fact that his favorite celebrity is dead? Such a shame" Four said."You're the reason Loser died! You put us in this godforsaken killing game and pushed him to kill somebody!" Firey angrily replied."It's not my fault. He WANTED to kill. I didn't push him, he pushed himself to do it! And he was stupid enough to get caught" Four replied as X gave him a juice box to drink."Fools..He isn't the only one who died assholes!" That voice made everyone shocked and they turned to see Taco. Eyes filled with angry tears."Loser isn't the only one who died! Spongy did as well! Spongy is also a living being you stupid assholes! Spongy was nice to be with! Loser only cared about this status in life!"Taco yelled as Firey was mad."Hey! Atleast Loser was cool!" Firey replied."COOL?! WHAT DO YOU MEAN COOL?! THEY CAN THINK OF ANY POSSIBLE LIE AND MILLIONS AND THOUSANDS WOULD BELIEVE IT! AND BY THE WAY. SPONGY IS ALSO COOL IN HIS OWN WAY!" Taco angrily replied as she stared into the other's eyes.That was it. Firey was literally gonna murder Taco. Right there right now. Firey got out of his podium and grabbed Taco by her wrists. Before anything could happen we heard X say."U-uh! Guys! You need to go to your suites! Or else foury is gonna kill you guys and..you dont want that" X looked back as Four and they nodded.Soon they 13 remaining students went in the elevator. Leafy was holding Firey's hand making sure he doesn't hurt Taco and Taco was in a far corner wiping her tears. This night was honestly frustrating for the students.Two people dying in one day is just too much.

[Lollipop's POV]

Soon the elevator made the ding sound and we all walked out going to directly to my respective room. I closed and locked the door sighing."Man..this is draining." I whispered under my breath sitting on my bed. I looked out the window then to the clock on the wall. 2:28 A.M. God it was late, I guess that trial took a long time. Two people. Two people died. One didn't deserve it and the other had no choice but to do it. I mean if X never stopped Firey it would've been four that would be deceased in a day. I layed on my bed staring at the ceiling. I raised my right hand to look at the two bracelets on my wrist. One was made by TD when our trio became offical and one made by me and it had a lollipop charm. The three of us have matching bracelets. Though gelatin barely wears it but brings it everywhere he goes. Speaking of Gelatin, his birthday is right around the corner. I wonder what should we do for his birthday.I did promise to take him out for dinner but that chances of that are slim so i might have to compromise at the moment. Maybe..i could possibly get the others to help me make a surprise party for him. I'm not quite the expert at throwing parties but its worth a shot. I soon got tired and turned of my lamp and went to bed.

[???'s POV]

Object 1: On my calculation there is a 55.4% chance we could possibly find them.

Object 2: Oh really? Wait so how big is that percentage?

Object 1: Ugh! And i thought you were smart. Ha! I guess i still am quite the smartest here.

Object 3: Why are we even trying to track them down! Theres no use! I hate this they're probably dead!

Object 4: Well i dont care about these tracking and calculation things! We just want our friend back!

Object 1:Oh shut up! We NEED to get the right coordinates on where are they if you want your friend- well everyone to be back safe Object 3:HEY YOU! CAN'T YOU JUST TELEPORT TO WHERE THEY ARE!

Object 2: Tried that! Didn't work somehow! Like something is blocking me from going to them!

Object 1: and thats why we have to track their coordinates!

[Mastermind's POV]

I sat there in my room watching these other object planning to track us down. Thats pointless. Very pointless.Theres no use for stupid coordinates and such. Soon this place will be in chaos. Oh! We have to save everyone and prevent them from killing people and getting murdered! Yeah right. These poor contestants not even knowing the mischief that lies before them.Then i heard a voice. "So, Any new motive plans? Can you at least think of one this time?" They other object asked."Eh. I have no idea. I guess they can have so fun while lasts" i replied closing my laptop."But can you at least be the one making it this time. The last one was kinda..shit" They replied."Oh c'mon now, Hey at least i KNEW Loser was gonna kill someone." I said looking at the other object as they sighed."Loser killed because it was mentioned not to be remembered. You know how Loser is." They replied. As i stood up and walked over to my chair and took my laptop and started writing. They peeked a bit but i shoved them away."Can't spoil the fun now!" I said loading an empty documents listing possible motives"That fight earlier." They manage to say."Hm.? What about it?" I said turning around to look at the object."wouldn't it be faster if you just let them kill?" They said looking staring at me."Hey! That would ruin the fun of this killing game? It wouldn't be fun anymore if it went that fast! And hey, its late. Get out." I said. And just like that. They left."I can't wait."

Oooh yuh 4 POVs in one chapter! Coolness!! I was honestly half asleep when writing this so yeah.

Afterlife Arcade

[Third Person POV]

This was the end for Loser. It was the end he's reached destination he-" Uh..You there?" A voice asked. Loser quickly opened his eyes and shot up from laying down on the floor. He looked at the object that spoke out to him, It was Spongy. Losers eyes widened in fear. Was he in hell? Did Spongy come to haunt him? Loser was standing there in disbelief muttering out random words." Yeah, if you're wondering yes you're dead. But you kinda end up here." Spongy said and Loser was back to his senses. He took a look at Spongy he had marks of strangulation on him." Oh.. I'm really sorry for killing you buddy.." Loser apologized." It's okay but killing me like that was pretty mean." Spongy replied." Well. Uh what is this place." Loser looked around more. Claw machines, games, lights and the colorful carpet there was also an area for eating. Was he at an arcade? "It's pretty much and arcade pretty hard for me to play any games though." Spongy replied. Loser looked at one of the claw machines he went closer to it and saw a bullet hole on his head. It's pretty much where he was shot before he died. He also had it on his arms and legs. The blood was still there though. Dripping." So, what have you been doing here, well being the first one to end up here." Loser asked looking back at Spongy." Oh yeah uh. I've been just walking around eating some pizza and watching that trial and your execution on TV, Currently the TV is off at the moment it turned off after that whole Taco and Firey fight" Spongy explained."Taco..and..Firey fight? What happened." Loser asked." A lot" Spongy replied and started explaining what had happened.

Time had passed and Spongy finally finished explaining. "I blame myself for this. Taco could've gotten seriously hurt or worse.. murdered.." Loser said with guilt." It's fine, You felt like you had to do it so I can't blame you. " Spongy replied. " So, I saw a closet with a lot of board games and tokens for some of the games here so wanna do something before they wake up?" Spongy asked. "Oh sure!" Loser replied as they grabbed some tokens to play some arcade games.

So when the contestants/students die, They end up in the afterlife arcade. This is where Four sends them after dying to watch and entertain themselves as they watch their fellow friends murder each other

A Broken Promise

[Lollipop's POV]

I woke up doing my usual routine. I got out of my room. It didn't feel like some sunny day, It was rather quiet." Two people just died so sudden.." I muttered to myself as I stood by my door. Stupid Four, stupid X. Placing us in such predicament when we could've done so much with our lives. Why us? From all the other objects in this world. Why? Why us 15. We could've done so much right now instead of being stuck in this island forced to play a game for "Freedom" and force us to kill each other is so stupid. So fucking stupid. Everything is stupid. I hate four. Fuck four. Fuck this forsaken killing game. I just wanna...Wanna-

"Lollipop? Are you okay?" I heard a voice say. I looked over to who said that. It was Gelatin and Teardrop." Lollipop what's wrong? me and gelatin saw you here, curled up, hugging your knees.. crying." Teardrop said through her text to speech. I was? seriously. Keep it together, Idiot. You're being an idiot right now. "Lolli?" This is pointless Lollipop. You gotta keep it together, Idiot. "Lolli?" Everything is so stupi- "LOLLIPOP!" I was slapped "Oh! I'm sorry for yelling! Please! Tell us what's wrong me and Teardrop are getting worried.. Just please.. give us a response." Gelatin said with a worry in their voice. They care about you Lollipop. Give them an answer won't you? "I'm sorry alliance, I'm just.. A bit overwhelmed, Apologizes to worry you two.." Soon Teardrop pulled me and Gelatin into a hug. It's them what keeps you stable. What keeps you sane Lollipop. This alliance is keeping you together. Cherish it as long as you can. "Uh can you move?" We look over to Blocky." Blocky! You ruined our cute wholesome comforting moment shit or whatever." Blocky mocked." The fuck Blocky? can you leave us alone?" Teardrop's text to speech said." Says the one who can't even talk!" Blocky said and Gelatin pushed us away before anything else could happen.

We got to the dinning hall to where most of us were. We looked over to a small corner as we entered. It was a small area to commemorate Loser. It even had a framed picture of him with all the candles and all of those stuff. Firey, Leafy, and some others were in the corner paying respects to Loser, I saw Taco at the very end sitting alone holding a framed picture as well. Gelatin walked over to her direction as we trailed behind him. " Uh.. taco? Are you doing alright?" Gelatin asked. I took a small glimpse of the framed picture Taco was holding. It was a picture of Spongy. "You think?" She coldly replied." You think I'm fine after losing my best buddy to some self centered prick." Taco said as tears started to form from her eyes." What did you fucking say about loser bitch?!" Firey shouted making his way over to us." HE'S A SELF CENTERED PRICK! IS THAT BETTER?!" Taco yelled back. That angered Firey even more. He quickly was stopped by Leafy and we blocked his way." Oh no you don't" I said. "Oh and what are you gonna do expose me as well? You're one of the reasons Loser is dead Lollipop!" Firey yelled. "SPONGY ALSO DIED YOU BASTARD" Taco yelled making Firey even more enraged." CAN EVERYONE PLEASE JUST CALM THE FUCK DOWN NOW!" Gelatin yelled out making the room quiet Firey was in shock, so was Taco." OH MY COLLAGEN! Can we PLEASE just stop fighting! Yes! I know Loser and Spongy is dead! But they wouldn't want to see us being a total wreck! Do you think they would be entertained to see us like this after they die?! I don't think so! So can you guys just stop!" That made the room awfully quiet. Firey just silently left the room Leafy soon followed behind. The others were stunned by Gelatin's words. Even myself. " You did the right thing Gelatin, You put them in their place." I said giving gelatin a head pat, Teardrop also gave him a head pat. "Anyways you guys wanna do something?" Gelatin asked. "Up to you." I replied. " How about you TD?" Gelatin asked as Teardrop shook her head. "Well maybe lets try to look around? Maybe explore the place!" Gelatin suggested. "Hey! Taco wanna join us?" Gelatin happily asked Taco who was still starring at the framed picture. "No. Leave me alone" She coldly replied. "Oh! Alright then! We'll give you space" Gelatin replied pulling me and Teardrop out of the dinning hall.

The three of us were outside walking around." So.. have any of you two eaten yet?" I asked looking at both of them." Nope! neither has Teardrop!" Gelatin replied." Well I see a cafe over there, would you guys wanna eat there?" I suggested. "Hey! was that there before?" Gelatin asked." Hmm.. I'm pretty sure it wasn't if it was then I guess I just haven't seen it yet." I replied as we walked over to the cafe opening the door. We were greeted by the scent of pastries and coffee. As we entered we saw Bubble, Ruby and Flower. "Oh Hey guys!" Gelatin greeted." Oh hi there you three!" Ruby waved." Oh! Hi! Come sit with us!" Bubble said as we sat with them I was sitting between Flower and Gelatin." So how are you guys? well.. after the-" "We don't want to talk about it at the moment." Gelatin said cutting flower off. We talked and chatted for a few hours." I was thinking of using chiffon fabric for my sweaters next." Flower mentioned" Mm.. Chiffon isn't bad go for it." I answered. "Wait what even is chiffon? Chee.. Fawn? " Ruby asked. "Oh Ruby, I said Chiffon Fabric, So it's fabric!" Flower replied." Hey lollipop want to see a preview of my comic again?" Teardrop's text to speech asked. "Sure where is it?" I asked and Teardrop passed me the comic. It was pretty much just started on it didn't even have color yet." Let me see let me see!" Gelatin said snatching the comic from me. I crossed my arms and I looked across my table to Bubble." Hey Bubble don't you pop easily?" I asked. "Oiw! Yeah! Woit about it?" Bubble said eating a cookie." How come you aren't dead yet?" I said." Niow idea!" She replied. I went back to drinking my coffee. Time had passed me, Gelatin and Teardrop were in the lobby waiting for the announcement and then.

DING!

DING!

DONG!

"Hello hello? Alright. It is officially 11:00 P.M! which makes it night time. get you asses to bed or you'll be in deep trouble..."

"Well.. that's our sign to go to our suites. Let's continue this in the morning. goodnight you two" I said after we all exchanged our goodnights we all went to our rooms. As I got in I did the usual by locking the door, All those hygienic stuff and sat on my bed. Today was something, Hopefully tomorrow won't be worse to say the least. Then I turned off my lamp and drifted into slumber.

I'm most likely gonna spin the wheel for the hang out chapter that's coming after this so stay tunned.

About Gem School [Hangout]

[Lollipop's POV]

Another day in this island. I always wish it were a dream but. At least I have my alliance with me. I thought to myself as I was sitting beside them. Though were stuck in this stupid killing game they are what keep me together and fill me with hope to live in this god forsaken world." So do you guys wanna do something together or something on our ow- and there goes Teardrop.. Aw man" Gelatin said." How about you Lolli? Wanna tag along with me and Profily?" He asked. "Erm no thanks I'll do whatever" Said as I soon left. "Alright what should I do?" I asked my self. Maybe I should-. Before I could do anything Ruby bumped into me." Oh hello pop-pop! I found a cool board game in the cafe yesterday! I like asked Flower if she wanted to play with me! Do you want to join?" Ruby asked me. I have no idea what to do honestly, so why not. Soon I was following Ruby to the picnic table on where Flower was sitting pretty bored." Hello Flower! I'm here with the board game! And Lollipop wanted to join in so she came along!" Ruby exclaimed. "It was actually Ruby who asked me to join you guys, now I'm here." I said as Ruby pouted." Well! Anyways hold on what game is this?" Ruby said looking at the small box she was holding. "Uhm.. Ruby, that's UNO that isn't a board game." Flower clarified. "Oh! Sorry!" Ruby replied awkwardly smiling. Flower decided to set up the uno cards for me and Ruby. "There finally." Flower said finishing passing over cards to us. Well i didn't have good cards but i can manage." Alright whos gonna start?" I asked curiously. "I'll start it" Flower said taking a card out of the draw pile and placing it on the deck, It's was a green card with a 2 on it."Ooh! I'll go next" Ruby said placing a yellow card down with a 3 on it."Uhm Ruby that's clearly a 3 and it isn't a yellow card either." I said."Oh.. sorry.. I didn't go to gem school.." Ruby said awkwardly as we all fell silent. Oh shoot, this became awkward." You didn't go to gem school? Why?" I asked curious on what she was gonna reply with." Well you see, Gem school are only for gems of a high value, well diamonds to specific." Ruby said looking down at the table." Do i stopped the game?" Flower asked worriedly. I gave her a nod and she started to grab the cards."Sorry I just don't know how to play uno.. I made it really awkward.." Ruby said as i patted her on the back."It's fine.. It's fine. I can't blame you if you didn't go to gem school it's fine" I said. I had no idea what gem school really was since i only heard that gems went to the place to learn."Do you mind telling us about gem school? If you're comfortable that is" I asked." Well uhm i can tell you what my bro- sister told me about gem school, They learn colors, Textures, Values and other stuff. Since me and my other 34 siblings mostly just learned from her so yeah.." Ruby explained. "What's the point of a gem school if it's only exclusive for Diamonds?" Flower asked going over to Ruby to pat her on the back. "That's the thing, i don't really know why though, i guess they just do it because diamonds have great value then my other 34 sisters and me" She replied shrugging.

After that we talked for a while and decided to teach Ruby how to play UNO, She didn't really understand it a lot at first but she kind of got the hang of playing UNO and almost won a round. Time had also passed and we just started to hang out for a little while, Flower taught us this ridiculous game she knew called flower power, we couldn't really play it since we didn't actually have petals unlike her but oh well. " Oh i remember this one game where we like, had to go hide and then like there's this object that would find us, it was honestly very fun!" Ruby explained." So you mean hide and seek?" I asked her as she nodded." Well, would you guys like to get some sweaters from my fashion line? It's on me of course!" Flower asked us. "You mean those uggg.... P-pretty! glittery sweaters?" I stuttered as Flower gave me a death glare, god what was her problem I didn't like how it was too glittery and it looked itchy." Oh! Sure! A sweater seems nice!" Ruby said happily. Flower was happy to hear me and ruby's words." Alright! I'm gonna drop it off on your front doors later, speaker of later what was the time?" Flower asked. I took out my digitfile to see that it was 8 PM."Woah! And hold on i didn't even notice there were lamps!" Ruby looked at the lamps amazed. We got up from our seats to go to the dinning hall where everyone else was at. As we got there everyone was there. Except Taco. Huh weird.I went up to Gelatin and tapped him on the shoulder."Hey Gelatin, have you seen taco?" I said as he looked at me." Oh! Taco? She decided to eat in her room she promised she'll leave the plate outside the door. Or maybe bring it tomorrow." Gelatin explained as i looked over to teardrop interacting with woody."Aww you two look so cute together!" Leafy exclaimed, And Teardrop gave her a death glare."Wha- no! No! F-Friends only!" Woody said stuttering mostly struggling to talk still."C'mon Woodster, ya sure you don't like ms comic artist over here?" Blocky said as Teardrop hit him on the head." Shut up before i make you shut up idiot" Teadrop's text to speech said. I'm glad that Four & X gave her a way to communicate and gave her, her laptop. But sadly they only have the text to speech only now.

Soon the nighttime announcement came and we went to our rooms. As I was heading in my room someone stopped me."LOLLIPOP! huff, Here! A sweater!" Flower said giving me a box. "Thanks! I'll uhm try it on in the morning!" I said as she smiled back at me." Hey uh Lollipop could you do me a favor if we ever escape this killing game?" Flower asked me as i raised an eyebrow at her." Please, help me sell my products? Please?" Flower asked me. Man when I first met her she acted like a brat. I guess she's changed in these past few days." Sure. " I replied as she waved goodbye and I closed my door locking it. I opened the box to see a purple glittery sweater. Huh oh well I'll wear it tomorrow. I thought to myself as i layed on my bed turning off the lamp and went to sleep.

WE'VE REACHED 1K READS BABY! i couldn't bare not posting anything as a celebration.

They're pathetic. They're all fools! So dumb. I mean. I gained most of their trust! It's just me, And my lovely helper. What a shame i have to fly solo at the moment. But worth it. Truly worth it. If they only payed attention to me. Nonw of this wouldn't happen. If i could've told them what I had in my thoughts before this killing game. Loser wouldn't have died, Spongy wouldn't have died. Oh! This is all my fault! Whatever. It's not like i don't have the freedom to actually speak anyway. They know even know what they have coming ahead of them. As long as Four and X stick to this I'll be fine. I don't want to force them again. It was rather..Hard to do it. It took me a long time to plan this out. This killing game, everything that I've written is going perfectly to what I've written down. Soon my name would be even more heard! Not just for my talent! But for everything. And they're all stupid to fall for my trap. I sat on my bed looking blankly at my laptop. I opened a file with motives listed down. I kept on scrolling down until a certain motive caught my eye. Motive 4. I stared at it well..this should be interesting. And soon there WILL be another murder. I just know it.

Yes it is rather short and i want to keep it that way, This is not the celebration for getting into rank four i promise this is just a mastermind POV lol

Prizes

[Lollipop's POV]

I woke up to Four's regular morning announcement. God it was getting old. I went out of my suite as Gelatin was outside his door yawning snd stretching. "Good morning my jello boy, say, Is Teardrop still asleep?" I asked as Gelatin looked over to me happily." Good morning! Lollipop! And I have no idea! I'm gonna go check!" Gelatin knocked on Teardrop's room. We waited as more of us came out of our room. "Hello? Teardrop?" Gelatin asked nervously. Still no response. "Heya Lollipop, Gelatin! What's going on? You two look worried." Leafy asked. " Teardrop won't come out of her room.. I'm getting worried. Her door is locked so we can't enter.." Gelatin said. "Morning fellas! Oh! Am I ruining the moment?" Profily said coming out of the room beside Teardrop's." It's fine, Profily, Teardrop won't come out of her room.." I replied. Wait..what if.. she's dead. No. I won't let it happen. I won't let her die, This won't happen. I wont. Let this happen. Soon Teardrop's door opened. I was the first to rush in. And then.. i saw...

"No.."

"NO NO NO NO NO NO NO."

"NO NO NO FUCK. FUCK. FUCK." I yelled breaking down into tears. There was Teardrop laying lifeless before me. A cup of poison in hand. "Lollipop?! Are you okay?!" A voice called out. I snapped back to reality. Gelatin look at me with worry. And so was Teardrop! She was alive." Lollipop you suddenly started crying! What's wrong?" Leafy asked. "Better question. Teardrop, How are you alive?!" I said tears still streaming down my face." What do you mean? I was always alive?" The text to speech replied for her, Before i could say anything else i was pulled into a hug by Gelatin and he soon also grabbed Teardrop into a hug. They are what keeps you together. Now keep yourself together Lollipop. You're being over dramatic don't you think" Now Lollipop what happened?" Gelatin asked as i stood up. I told him that we should talk about it in the dining room because I didn't want to talk about it here. Gelatin nodded as Me, Gelatin, Teardrop & Leafy went to the dining room." Woah there are you alright Lollipop? You started breaking down earlier so i just left!" Profily asked. "I'm doing good now Profily." I said as i sat down." So. The door just opened then I saw you, Teardrop. You we're dead! Right infront of me.. You were holding a cup of what think is poison. And then-" I explained but i soonly got cut off as i heard a plate crash. " YOU SON OF A BITCH. YOU'RE THE REASON HE'S DEAD! HOW ARE YOU STILL ALIVE!" Taco yelled furiously as she threw a plate at the wall. Soon eyes were on Taco. She screamed and yelled at the wall throwing plates and silverware. "I HATE YOU. HOW ARE YOU NOT DEAD." Taco yelled. "Wah!Taco! Calm down!! What's going on!" Woody asked Taco." OH I'LL TELL YOU WHATS WRONG. LOSER IS SOMEHOW STILL ALIVE AND STANDING THERE. RIGHT THERE!" Taco angrily replied pointing at the wall. "Deep breath! Breathe in! Breath out!" Woody said trying to help her. "NO I WON'T BREATHE ANY FORM OF AIR UNTIL I SEE THIS BITCH OF A CUBE DEAD!" Once again Taco smashed another plate at the wall pushing Woody" HOW DARE YOU DISRESPECT LOSER. THEY FUCKING DIED IDIOT!" Firey yelled approaching Taco. "LOSER, LOSER, LOSER. THAT'S ALL YOU CAN THINK ABOUT WITH YOUR BRAIN. OH RIGHT! YOU ALREADY BURNT YOUR BRAIN SO YOU CAN'T THINK PROPERLY." Taco yelled as Firey grabbed her by the wrist. " OH RIGHT YOU ALSO BURNT YOUR BRAIN CELLS! LET ME HELP YOU GET THEM BACK!" Taco soon spat on Firey making him let go of her and started screaming in pain. "CAN YOU ALL SHUT UP. OH MY FUCKING GOD!" Four yelled as the room silenced."Stop being disrespectful to Four!" X yelled." Well as you all can tell there's a new motive!"Four said as he snapped his fingers and the TV appeared and Four turned it on

Hello again lovely students. I honestly thought you would've immediately killed someone since we had our lovely Loser take the bullet for us! And Spongy. But you didn't. So we're back with a new motive!

Motive: You guys will get random hallucinations at times! It can happen at anytime of day or night! You must kill someone to get rid of these hallucinations by killing someone. You don't want to be driven into despair don't you?

That makes sense for what I saw earlier. " If no questions I'll move on to a special surprise!" Four said as everyone went quiet for a few minutes." Well then! Congrats on surviving death! I have prizes for you all!" Suddenly a plate of chocolate cubes was in my hands. I look to see Gelatin had Sponge cake on his and Teardrop also had chocolate cubes." Those are prizes for surviving!" X said happily. Taco was silent. She glared at the plate of Sponge cake she was now holding." Wait a minute. Are these based on the people who like died? Sponge cake for Spongy and Chocolate cubes for Loser?" Ruby asked. "Yeah! Nice going Sherlock it was pretty obvious by now." Four said. "Well enjoy your day while it lasts.." Four said as him and X disappeared in a blink of an eye." THIS IS FUCKING STUPID!" Taco yelled smashing the plate of sponge cake and stormed out of the room.

After that incident we went to do our own thing. I was in my suite along with Gelatin and Teardrop we were talking about stuff. Things that happened before the killing game mostly recalling stuff thats all. Laughing having fun even. I love my alliance. They keep me together." Oh yeah and this one customer was looking at me and then asked. Hey little boy i need to talk to your manager. And I looked at her grinning and said I'm the manager!" Gelatin said laughing. Teardrop was mostly drawing concepts for one of her new comics. A few hours later we were at the dinning room eating with the others.

"Uh hey guys..did anyone experience any Hallucinations today?" Balloony asked nervously. Seems like they've been through one. The room stayed silent most of us looked at Balloony. " I.. uhm nevermind! Sorry for asking!" Balloony said looking back down at his food. Time had passed and soon the night time announcement came.

"Hello contestants! It is officially 11 PM so get going to your rooms or you'll be in big trouble.."

I stood up from my seat at I walked with Gelatin and Teardrop to the rooms. I opened the door to my room as I looked over to them. "Goodnight alliance." I said patting TD and Gelatin on the head. As I went in and locked my door. I sat on my bed thinking what a day. I layed down as i realized. Gelatin's birthday is in two days.. I'm gonna ask the others to plan a surprise party for him. Yeah thats what I'll do. Im not fond of party planning but worth a shot. I thought to myself turning the lights off as i closed my eyes as i started to drift to sleep.

REALLY SORRY FOR A SLOW UPDATE I JUST GET REALLY ACTIVE ON DIFFERENT APPS! BUT ANYWAYS MOTIVE CHAPTER!!!

Surprise Birthday Party

[Lollipop's POV]

I woke up to Four's regular announcement it was a pain to hear his voice every single day bickering about who might die today, It's sickening. Not only that but also the hallucinations. But right now I have to plan something for Gelatin's birthday. I did my regular hygienic stuff before leaving my room. On my way out I saw Flower, She might know a thing or two about throwing parties perhaps? I approached Flower and tapped her on the shoulder she gave a small hm before turning around. "Oh, Lollipop" She said as she looked at me confused." Okay, Listen here, Gelatin's birthday is right around the corner, And I was wondering if you know a thing or two about at least decorating a party." I explained as Flower smiled widely. "Oh! Silly little purple pop! I've decorated parties in the past! Well not really taking much credit but yeah! But first we need a venue." Flower said as I too was deep in thought, Until Ruby passed by us." Heya there Pop-Pop! Flower!" She greeted." Please do not call me that." I said groaning." Oh sorry about that! But anyways, Four opened a few rooms in this place and I think a ware house, a..uh.. a ware house, then..like a..I forgot!" Ruby smiled sticking her tongue out in a silly manner. "A ware house?! Maybe we can go find materials there!" Flower exclaimed. "I doubt all that that's there is a bunch of materials to murder someone." I said crossing my arms." What's up everyone" I heard the robotic text to speech voice and as i thought it was Teardrop. "Oh hello there TD, Were just discussing about-" Before I could finish Gelatin walked in. "Discussing about what Lollipop?" He asked curiously." Oh its about your pa-" Ruby said as i quickly covered her mouth." Your..Part! In preventing a murder from happening again!!!" I exclaimed giving Ruby a quick stare."Oh! Okay! Well I'll be cooking breakfast I'm gonna see is Four has some cook books! Do you wanna come?" He asked. "No thanks but I'll see you in the dining hall later." I replied and gave him a smile as he walked off. That was a close one. "Phew, that was like scary! Im sorry Lollipop!" Ruby said. "It's fine, So lets split into two groups, Ruby, Teardrop you try to find a good place to mostly host the party at as me and Flower look for stuff in the warehouse" I said as we all agreed and we split into groups.

Me and Flower walked around finding the warehouse mostly having a quick chat or two on the way. Soon after walking for about a good 10 minutes or so we finally got to the warehouse. We went in and there was a lot of items there, Majority being weapons and poisons for murder but there was other stuff like eating utensils, writing materials, Baking material, coloring material etc. It was a pretty big warehouse filled with all kinds of stuff so me and Flower split up to look for stuff we could possibly use for the party. I walked passed a box labeled "Forks" Gelatin likes forks. Maybe he'll like a bunch of for his party. "Lollipop! I found some party supplies!" Flower yelled as she came over holding a box filled with party supplies. I opened the box to se a bunch of party hats, decorations and those stuff for parties. "Well this is good enough." I said picking up the box of forks." And I have a box of forks. "Why exactly?" Flower asked confused. "Gelatin likes to collect forms and stack them like a card tower, Somehow." I explained as she was mostly as confused as I am. "Yello you two!" We heard Profily say by the door." Oh hey there Profily, Mind helping us carry some stuff back to the lobby?" Flower asked." Okie dokis!" Profily exclaimed as Flower gave Profily a box of party materials. "Wowzers! Is there a party?" Profily asked. "Were planning a surprise party for Gelatin it's his birthday tomorrow" I said as Profily look excited. "OH! OH! May I come to the party?" Profily asked." Sure sure now c'mon lets go." I said as we walked back to the hotel lobby. There we go Ruby and Teardrop sitting on one of the sofas. "Hey Ruby, Teardrop. Have you found a place yet?" Flower asked as Ruby stood up."Yep! Teardrop found this very spacious room with air conditioning and stuff looks like its fit for a party room because it had chairs and tables as well!" Ruby exclaimed as Teardrop started typing." Ruby, that WAS a party room" said her text to speech. "Oh! So do we need to make invitations?" Profily asked." Yeah pretty much, I'll make them," Teardrop said. "Can i help?" Flower asked as Teardrop shook her head for now. "At least put some glitter on it." Flower said as Ruby shook her head again. "Oh Whatever." Flower replied.

Soon we were at the dining hall eating breakfast with the others. We were eating and chatting like the usuals. I glanced over to Gelatin who was just eating their food happily. After that we went to do our own thing. I was in the bakery with Bubble and Ruby as I heard the door of the bakery ring. There entered Teardrop." Lollipop I've been looking for you." The text fo speech said as Teardrop sat down next to me handing the invitations she made." Ouh? Whoits that?" Bubble asked. "Oh, It's gelatin's birthday tomorrow. Teardrop went ahead and made invitations." I explained passing one to Bubble as she looked at it and Ruby took a quick peek. "It looks groit! Gelatin would loive this!" Bubble said." Agreed!" Ruby seconded. "Should i make a cake for hoim?" Bubble asked me." Sure! Gelatin would love that." I replied.

Soon night time came and Four's nightly announcement came in telling us to go to our suites. I entered my suite feeling happy that Gelatin's birthday was tomorrow. Mostly surprising a really close friend. I closed my eyes and went to sleep.

"Rise and shine it is officially morning so get out of bed you lazy asses and do something productive or some shit to kill someone!"

Today was the day. It was Gelatin's birthday! I got out of bed. And got ready. I exited my suite as I saw Teardrop..She was.. crying? Why was she crying. I went over to teardrop who was having a mental breakdown outside her suite. I put my hand on her shoulder reassuring her." Whats wrong?" I asked as she looked at me. "Your fault." Her text to speech said. My fault? What does she mean by that. She slowly pointed behind me....

Is he..

No...NO. NO. NO. NO. NONONONONO. GELATIN NO.

I quickly shot up from my bed heavily panting looking around at my surroundings. All I saw was my dark room with the window as my one of only light source in here. It was..a nightmare. I thought to myself. I just layed back in my bed trying to fall asleep. Hoping for the best tomorrow.

Haha another chapter. Progress is slow but the next victim will be revealed soon so yeah

Surprise!

"Hello guys! It's me X! And I wanted to say-" X managed to say as angry footsteps were heard." X, Move. Anyways! It is officially 6 AM!! Which means..ITS TIME TO GET YOUR ASSES UP! anyways..enjoy your day." And soon the morning announcement was done.

"Why does it always have to be 6 am...." I whined as i hopped out of bed yawning. I've been tired since yesterday and i just have the urge to get back to bed. But oh well. I opened the door of my room looking back making sure I didn't forget anything at all. I scanned the room and I pretty much didn't need anything so I closed door. As I turn around Profily was standing there right in front of me." Good morning birthday boy!" Profily greeted me as they patted me a bit of jello sticking into their hand." Oh right, yeesh, from the pressure of this motive I completely forgot it was my birthday! Haha!" I said happily laughing." Wanna build some sand castles buddy?" Profily excitedly asked me."Sure! But wait I gotta see Lollipop and Teardrop real quick!" I said walking past them but they blocked my way. I looked at Profily confused as they gave me a wide smile." Uh Profily, you're..kinda in the way so, I'm just gonna pass.." I said as i tried walking past Profily but was soon blocked again." Wanna go make sand castles!" Profily asked cheerfully. I just stared at Profily who was obviously trying to hide something from me." What is it?" I asked Profily started sweating looking anywhere but me."Wh- what do you mean? I'm just, just- Wanting to build a sand castle with you!" They said still not having eye contact with me. They looked back as we both stared at each other. "Fine! Fine! Go can pass! Don't want to make the birthday boy mad!" Profily said getting out of my way as I walked past them." Oh! Yeah! Just meet me outside alright! Aright." Profily said as i walked away from them. I walked in the dining hall hoping to see Teardrop and Lollipop. I didn't the only ones in the room were Woody, Blocky, Leafy and Balloony.

"Heya guys!" I said as Balloony and Leafy turned to me!" Oh heyo Gelatin! You look very enthusiastic today" Balloony said as i chuckled a bit." Well yeah i guess, It is my birthday after all! Anyways have you guys seen Lollipop and Teardrop?" I said as Leafy and Balloony looked at each other and looked back at me." Uh no we haven't sorry!" Leafy said, I frowned a bit but eh oh well." Alright! Thanks!" I replied sitting down by them." So what were you guys doing?" I asked them. "Oh! Balloony was teaching me morse code! Though i can't really understand it that much! Haha!" Leafy said as i laughed a bit." Nah Leafy's lying she couldn't understand anything!" Blocky said laughing Leafy looked mad." Hey! I did understand! Just not a bit!" Leafy said clearly pissed." Yeesh calm down Leafster I'm just messing with you." Blocky said as Leafy turned away." Fine! To prevent disturbances! Lets head somewhere like the lobby!" Leafy said pulling Balloony outside." Hey! Hey! Leafy!! Your pulling my finger! Ouch-"Balloony yelled as they exited the room. Welp poor Balloony, I decided to go to the kitchen and cook myself something.

After eating i decided to go outside and sure enough Profily had been surprisingly waiting for me the whole time outside just scribbling on a notepad." Oh heya!" Profily greeted as i smiled." Did you managed to find Lollipop and Teardrop?" They asked. "Nope! I dont know where the heck they are!" I said as Profily grabbed my hand and mostly brought me by the water. Once we got there Profily just plopped onto the sand. "You alright?" I asked laughing a bit as Profily gave a thumbs up and soon stoof back up." Oh shoot i forgot the bucket and shovel.. We'll use our bare hands then!" Profily said as they got some wet sand and put it on the sand. "Yeah...we should've gotten a shovel and bucket.." Profily said washing their hands off in the water. Soon they got up and went to get a shovel and bucket. "Be right back pal!" Profily said turning around and leaving

A few minutes had past and Profily came back with two shovels and a bucket." Much better!" I said as we started to get to work with the sand castle. After probably an hour or something we finally finished." Lets name it after you! Well you know, You're the birthday boy!" Profily recommended. "Oh sure!!" I replied and soon we named the sand castle Castillo de Gelatin!" Oh! Oh! Right! I made this cool drawing for you as a gift!" Profily said as they grabbed the notepad they had earlier and teared of a page and gave it to me

"Oh my collagen, what happened to Lollipop?" I asked looking over to the blue profile picture. "Sorry! My pen bled while drawing her!" They replied.

[Lollipop's POV]

I was in the small party room along with Teardrop, Ruby, Flower and Bubble decorating." Isn't that too much glitter don't you think Flower, It wont even stick that much." I said looking over to flower."Oh.. you're right! I should put more!" Flower said as she started throwing more glitter at the wall."Uhuh...totally what I said.." I remarked sarcastically and sighed." So like why are we putting forks on the walls again?" Ruby asked. "Lollipop had the thought of adding forks as decoration because Gelatin might like them" Replied Teardrop's text to speech." Soon Balloony and Taco went in." So uhm.. Gelatin is coming back.. Taco saw." Balloony said worriedly. "Hold on, hold on, Where's Profily?" I asked looking at the two." Profily is trying to prevent Gelatin from coming back by blocking him." Taco replied." Wh- wait! No we still havent finished yet give us a good...maybe 20 more minutes!" Flower yelled as they went out." We still have to put up some decorations!!" Flower yelled as she rushed around. Grabbing stuff."Woill..the cake loiks pretty good!" Bubble said finally finishing the cake. "Woah! That looks impressive!" Ruby replied.

[Gelatin's POV]

"We should play tag!" Profily said trying to block my way." No thanks! I really should head back inside now" I said trying to pass them."Oh! Oh! Maybe we can play a board game at the cafe!" Profily suggested. But i refused. What is with Profily? I opened the door of the hotel to see Leafy and Firey there. The shot up from their seat.

[Third Person POV]

"Hi" Firey said looking rather nervous. Gelatin looked at Firey." Hello there Firey you feeling good?" Gelatin as Firey nodded." Leafy gave Woody who was peeking a thumbs up." Wh- WHAT IS HE DOING HERE!" Flower yelled at the two. "Sorry couldn't stop him from coming back!" Profily said as they gasped and quickly covered their mouth." They're planning something in the party room!" Blocky yelled as everyone looked over to Blocky mad." Whaat? Just spitting facts to Mr.Birthday boy!" Blocky said pointing at Gelatin. It took quite a while for Gelatin to process everything." You guys are planning an event with out me?! On my birthday?!" Gelatin asked frowning. "No! No! We- we're uh.." Leafy said trying to get the right words out of her mouth. Gelatin had seen the party room before and practically knew where it was so he went there." No! No! Gelatin wait!" Flower said trying to catch up to Gelatin as Leafy and some others followed." Wait.. isn't Teardrop, Lollipop and Bubble still in there?!" Balloony asked in a panicked tone. Taco stayed silent for a while." Gosh! You're right!" Taco exclaimed as she ran over.

"C'monnn! I wanna see!" Gelatin whined as Flower and Leafy tried to stop him from getting there. Some of the other were trailing behind. But from countless times they tried stopping Gelatin they finally got to the door of the party room. Flower and Leafy were behind Gelatin panting." God! Huff Gelatin please! don't open the door!" Leafy said. But gelatin didn't listen he opened the door and it was pitch black." Fine! We admit! We were throwing a suprise party for you! Better?" Flower yelled as Gelatin turned to Flower. "Why didn't you tell me?!" Gelatin yelled back at the pink and yellow flower as they got into a small argument. Leafy noticed that the room was still dark so she opened the light switch that was outside." Well sorry tha-.." Gelatin paused for a moment. Flower looked at Gelatin who turned over to the inside of the room. She was confused for a bit as she turned her head to the decorated room.

Crack Chapter 1

SIKE ITS A CRACK CHAPTER!!!!

[Traitor's POV]

I slowly open the door as I saw the mastermind sitting on their bed blasting some edgy shit on their laptop." What the hell are you doing" I said as they almost fell out of their bed when they heard me." Im hyping myself up [Redacted]" They replied laptop in hand. "Ouh.. uhm.. why?" I replied." To uhm hype me up for the next execution, I mean i do know who killed Lollipop." They reply." Alright, We get it you have a laptop where you have controls to anywhere in the hotel or the other buildings!" I replied as I exited their room still hearing the edgy music playing.

THIS IS NOT ACTUALLY APART OF THE BOOK ITS JUST SOME RANDOM CHAPTER FOR FUN

Investigation Time #2

[Gelatin's POV]

No this can't be happening ..This is just the motive messing with me again right this is the hallucinations right? I turned back to the others then back to the body, They were horrified. So I wasn't the only one seeing this...

Ding!
Ding!
Dong!

"A body has been discovered! Now. After a few hours of investigation, The class trial will begin!"

Four said through the speakers as everyone was mostly whispering to each other now." By now you know the drill right? Check your Digitfiles for the information of Lollipop's Death" X said. I soon took out my digitfile for the information.

Victim's name: Lollipop
Cause of Death: Head smashed into pieces
Location of Body: Party Room
Time of death: 11:07 A.M
Body found: 11:12 A.M

- Truth Bullet! -
DigitFile - Information on Lollipop's death

So this isn't a hallucination is it. I looked to Teardrop who was sobbing. I put my hand on her shoulder reassuring her. "So uhm, I'm gonna need you all to get to the elevator once I call you all, I'll be leaving now, Bye-" X said just vanishing. "Oh gosh, Gelatin, Are you okay? I'm sorry this had to happen on your birthday, Losing a friend and st-" Taco said as I just cut her off"It's okay, As long as we investigate to find who killed Lollipop, I'm sure we'll get to the bottom and we'll avenge Lollipop!" I saw a smile on Teardrop's face as I said that and even a smile on Taco's face aswell." Yeah yeah sorry to ruin the moment but standing here having some determined protagonist moment won't really help since we only have a small amount of time to do this." Blocky said. " Okay let's I guess go into search groups so we can explore as much as we can" Leafy said as we agreed and we mostly went in groups. I was in a small search group with Teardrop, Profily and Bubble, we stayed in the party room to investigate the crime scene. My eyes landed on that note on the floor. I walked over to it to take a closer look at it.

"Im sorry"

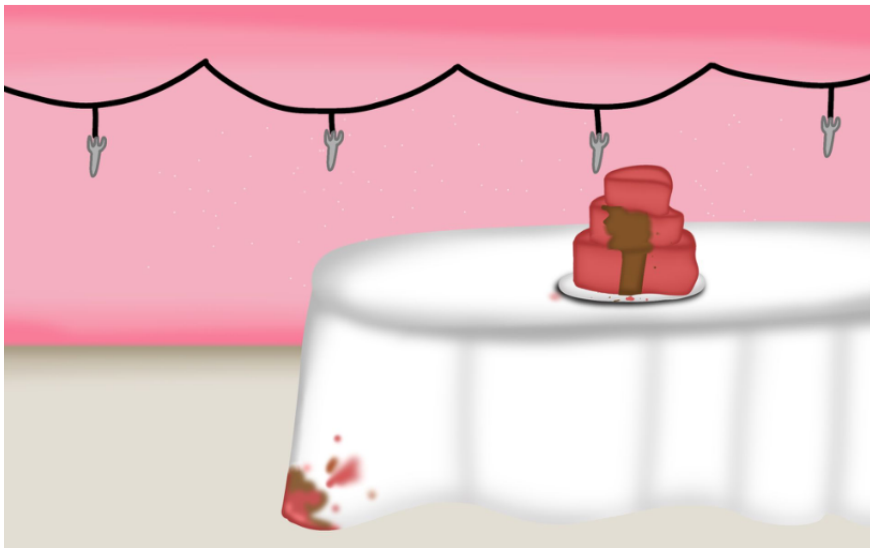
- Truth Bullet! -
Note - ~~Why are you sorry.Why are you sorry.Why are you sorry~~ .
This possibly was left by the culprit.

Those words were written on the note. Asking for forgiveness after killing someone? How stupid. I picked it up." Hey guys any possible reason you guys could think of?" I asked showing them the paper." Ouh...maybe asking foirgiveness? " Bubble suggested. "Yeah, Possible? But seriously. Why would they bother writing this?" Teardrop's text to speech replied." Well!! I think it's was an accident!" Profily exclaimed. Despite the situation they're still smiling." How are you so sure about that Profily?" The text to speech said." I mean it's just a guess, sheesh" Profily said. "Foucus! Goiys!" Bubble said as i nodded. Looking around the room more. There was a bunch of forks that surrounded the room, A bunch of glitter on the walls some mostly on the floor, a table with the cake on the table..wait. I stopped to look at the table.



There was a stain of cake frosting and some bit of cake on the table cloth." Did you guys notice this before?" I asked." Ouh no! The coike!!" Bubble yelled." Yeesh someone's excited for cake." Profily said earning a slap from teardrop." Focus" her text to speech said." Well who ever came here made a huge mess with the cake." I said looking at the cake stain on the cloth seeing mostly frosting and a bit of blood aswell on it." Well, It woisnt like this when i loift!" Bubble said. I stood up looking more around the room.

- Truth Bullet! -

Dirty table cloth: just some table cloth stained with cake frosting and droplets of blood.

I searched the room for clues checking the corners of the room along with the others." Could've this killed Lollipop?" Profily said breaking the silence. I turned around seeing Profily holding a wooden mallet." Oh! That could be possible." I said walking over to Profily." But why isn't it even bloody, If it was wiped off wouldn't it still stain the mallet?" Teardrop questioned."You've got a point, well lets just keep that in mind for now." I replied.

- Truth Bullet! -

Clean Mallet: a wooden mallet that had a yellow painted streak.

We mostly checked the room for a few minutes before leaving the party room, I looked at now deceased lollipop's body one last time sighing and closing the door. We split into two, Bubble & Profily splitting up & me and Teardrop sticking together." So where should we go next?" I asked. Teardrop pointed to the open storage room and went inside. There we saw Taco holding something." Oh hey Taco, what's that?" I asked as she turned around holding a bloody mallet.My eyes widened in fear."D-DID YOU KILL LOLLIPOP?!" I yelled." No i didn't Gelatin, I found this in the storage room. It seemed like it was just thrown in here though." Taco said as i breathed a sigh of relief." Judging by it the killer was in a rush, again." Taco muttered the last few parts." Did you guys find anything?" Taco asked." Well there was the note beside lollipop, the dirty table cloth and another mallet." I replied." I wonder what the mallets are for." Taco asked. " It's for the pinata." The text to speech replied." I see, well, I'll continue investigating, and you guys should too." Taco said leaving the storage room and me and Teardrop left aswell.

- Truth Bullet! -

Bloody mallet: found in the storage room.

Me and Teardrop wondered more and more, looking for possible clues on our fellow alliance member's death. We look most of the bottom floor." I wonder what parts haven't we checked yet..." I said Teardrop thinking for a while." Maybe there could be some possible places that we co-" As i said that the bell rang.

"Your time is up! Please make your way to X by the elevator, for the class trial!"

Click.

"Oh my collagen we ran out of time! Gosh, hopefully it just turns out fine..." I said as me and Teardrop made our way to the elevator, there we met with the others and also X. X looked at us counting if we were all there." Oh, uh there kind of a few of you now..but anyways, you guys are here! Yay!!! Ahem, ahem, anyways since you guys are here let's go to the trial room!" X exclaimed pressing the button of the elevator and soon it opened. I took a deep breath as we all entered, elevator door closing.

We're getting to the bottom of this Lollipop.

Sorry it took me like two months to write this chapter, I kinda got lazy, and I had like other stuff to do! Sorry!!!

Chapter 2: Trial 2

Back again with a simple guide for the dialogue

Gelatin: (text) = Thoughts

Gelatin: Text = talking

Student: Text (Text) = The one in the open and closed parentheses is Gelatin's thoughts

Student: Text text = Either something to agree on or not to agree on Additional: Teardrop's text to speech will be labeled as "Teardrop" now, Teardrop is quite the fast typer for arguments.

[Third Person POV]

The elevator fell silent once more. Gelatin was feeling more nervous than ever, this is the second time he's going down this elevator. This is the second time he's in the same space with a murder. Everyone stared at each other thinking who could possibly be the culprit. At this very moment, they didn't trust each other. Especially Gelatin, That was this small part, this tiny part of him that believed that they all planned this. It was a rough week for Gelatin, it was a rough week for all of the remaining contestants. The hallucinations fucked with everyone badly. Gelatin looked at Teardrop, who was crossing her arms rather stone faced. Gelatin placed his hand on Teardrop's shoulder as she looked at him with a smile. He can't leave an alliance member out especially moments like this. We're basically a team. He thought.

"Okay we made it guys!" X stated as the elevator doors opened. The contestants saw the same class trial room for the second time, Four patiently sitting down in his chair. The contestants went to the podiums silently. Same thing as last time but, something was new now. There was a portrait of Loser two bloody spot lights overlapping to make an X in the portrait. And another portrait that stood out from the other two. Lollipop's portrait that had an out of stock sign written in blood. Four cleared their throat to speak." I honestly hope some of you remembered the rules of the class trial. If not then lets discuss the rules of the class trial! Again. You all will present your arguments on who you think the killer is! vote for who killed the victim! If you get it right only the blackened will receive punishment! Get it wrong and you all except the blackend will be in deep trouble...As you all face punishment the blackend will be free to leave the island and live peacefully! Well that is if you get the killer right. Well that's all for the rules of this trial! Now, begin. What ever just go. "

[Gelatin's POV]

Gelatin:(Okay so what I did last time, stay silent and listen to what the have to say)

Taco: Alright what should we start with?

Leafy: Maybe the way Lollipop was killed in the smallest amount of time which is insane!

Woody: wellll..uh.. I don't know!

Firey: Wait..Maybe..Lollipop was killed in the dark!

Taco:It's impossible to see in the dark. Especially if the doors are closed.

Balloony: Or the culprit could've killed as Gelatin was coming back?

Gelatin: Yeah that's probably right!

Ruby: Wait like, how would you know, You were like distracted.

Gelatin: I mean do you have anything more reasonable Rubster?

Ruby: Okay fair point!

Taco: Well we still need a point to confirm that Gelatin we can't just say, Oh the murder killed when I wasn't here y'know.

Gelatin: Right, Right. Well our only suspects are... Wait who was in the-Balloony: Wait! Why are we suddenly jumping to suspects. We cant be exactly sure if the one who could've killed were the ones who were with Lollipop!

Firey: Well isn't that just common sense?

Taco: No it wouldn't, Firey. There could still be a chance it could've been one of us. Don't jump into conclusions.

Firey: Well it could be one of them

Teardrop: Well I agree. I mean wasn't everyone else in the lobby?

Woody:wh- you were with, lolli?

Taco: Well yeah Teardrop was with Lollipop but that doesn't mean Teardrop could've killed her.

Blocky: What if YOU killed her!

Taco: Oh my god Blocky, Are you trying to pin this case on me? Im just trying to help!

Blocky: Haha! Get pranked!

Taco: Blocky you are the death of us all..

Leafy: Back to topic! The killer could be one of the one's who were decorating for everyone was in the lobby!

Taco: Not everyone. As we know Gelatin & Profily were outside so cross them off. I was on the Look out, Firey, Leafy and Blocky were at the lobby with me as I was on look out. So that leaves Balloony and Woody who weren't in the party room so it could be one of them.

Ruby: Well! Me, Bubs, Flower and Teardrop did leave the room leaving Lollipop there so could be either!

Teardrop: Well, It could and I know it could be one of you.

Blocky: Ain't that making you a suspect aswell

Teardrop: Well yeah but still

Flower: Seriously? We all left the room. Leaving Lollipop practically defenseless!

Woody: Yeah!!

Balloony: Honestly I agree. Not because im a suspect but because it's not really right to jump into conclusions! It might not me only me and Woody as suspects but some of you guys too besides the ones who were planning

Firey: Seriously "don't jump to conclusions" ahem? It's pretty obvious already

Taco: Well of course you could be wrong again. Just like the first chapter. Besides, I'm a detective I know what I'm doing

Firey: Oh yeah yeah, You're proven not the killer! Woo hoo! Loser died now you're happy because he got what he deserved

Leafy: FIREY! TACO! NOW IS NOT THE TIME!

Bubble: Goiys. Can we all joist agree thoit there's a choince that the killer can't be one of ois fouir?

Gelatin: (Then most of them started quarreling. I and some others watched. I knew i had to do something.)

Gelatin: GU-

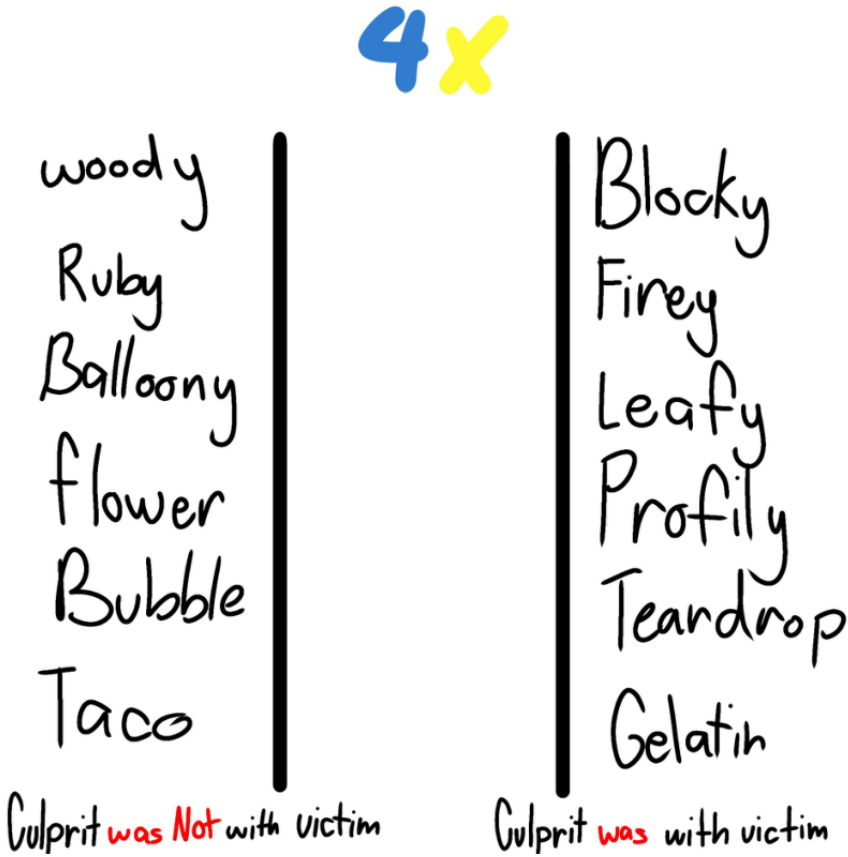
"HOLD THE PHONE!"

Gelatin: (I turned to four as he looked, excited like i knew what was about to happen.)

Four: Ah evenly split again. Ha! You know what that means.. Another little scrum debate!! Oh how fun!

Four: For the ones who forgot what a scrum debate is. A scrum debate is where you fourteen will be split into two teams. Then you guys will mostly argue your opinions against each other! Then after that you guys would pretty much come to the conclusion of such things, The last time you guys debated if taco's the killer or not! Now you will be debating if the killer was not with or was with the culprit! Now if no one has no more questions, Let the scrum debate begin!!!

Gelatin: (As four said that our podiums started shaking and moving to face each other)



(Lazy little arrangements!!!)

Taco: Not everyone was present in the lobby, They could've killed Lollipop as the others left the room!

???: Time to take this into my hands.

Teardrop: We can't be sure on that. There's a low chance that the ones who weren't present could've killed her.

Flower: All of us left the room! So the culprit definitely sneaked in, And took the kill!

???: Let me stop you right there

Blocky: But.. We didn't even see anyone even going in that direction, except the time Taco and Balloony came in. I mean if I we're wrong and if you guys had eyes, you would've seen the culprit that sneaked in for yourself!

Woody: Well.. uh.. but the decoraters, weren't even there when the murder happened.. They all left right?

???: Oh! Oh! I'll handle this!

Profily: But you can't really know if they all really left!

Bubble: The koiller must've hid somewhere. Siomewhere that us party planners didn't bother checking boifore leaving!

???: My turn! no need to thank my kindness

Leafy: But mostly all of us were in the lobby, some not to be seen by even us! So no way they could've hid from you guys!

Balloony: Yeah but maybe if they set a trap and maybe.. activated it as they others left leaving Lollipop by herself?

???: Okay, Okay. My turn!

Firey: Honestly, How can it be possible for the culprit to know when everyone left the rooms except one. And if they did set a trap wouldn't the ones in the party room see it?

Ruby: Well it is like common sense for the culprit to be one of you guys! Because we all left Lollipop in the room, There I like say easy to kill!

???: Okay let me handle this.

Gelatin: Well the culprit can still be one of you decorators! Maybe. One of you guys came back and took the kill!

Gelatin: (We continued to debate and debate.. Until)

" WE FINALLY HAVE OUR CONCLUSION! "

- BREAK! -

Gelatin: (I took a sigh of relief as our podiums started going back into it's circle formation.)

Gelatin: Okay! now that who the suspects could be is settled. Maybe we can move on to the crime scene?

Taco: I guess so. Okay so. The ones that were with Lollipop were.. Ruby, Bubble, Teardrop & Flower.

Firey: Yeah.

Leafy: Hold on! Hold on! Wait- Wasn't Teardrop on our team during the scrum debate? So that means TD here is siding with us when she's one of the suspects

Balloony: Are you saying that Teardrop can be suspicious because she sided with you guys in scrum debate?

Taco: That is weird. Unless...Teardrop killed Lollipop...

Gelatin: Guys! Guys. We're talking about the crime scene, We can move on and discuss who the culprit is after. As we know there was a note beside.. Beside Lollipop's dead body.

Flower: The "I'm Sorry" note?

Blocky: What other note dumbass?

Flower: YOU SON OF A BIT-

Taco: BACK TO TOPIC! Anyways. Regarding the note. Why would they write it even? Saying sorry after smashing someone's head into pieces.

Profily: What if they we're meant to kill someone else!

Bubble:Woah! Are yoiu soiying that the culprit was meant to koill one of us?!

Leafy: Maybe not a certain target but at least one of you guys!

Balloony: Could be. They could've killed at least two of you guys but that would raise the suspicion on one of you guys.

Firey: But what is that was their intention

Woody: Wha?

Firey: I mean like, Their intention was to kill two of you guys but it might backfire on them and they would get caught.

Gelatin: (and another non-stop debate started. Time to listen to everyone to get hints or something like that)

Firey: Well since there were five of you guys there, There's a chance two murders were planned!

Ruby: Wahh! It was possible I could've died! (unsure, unlikely)

Taco: Calm down! If we just try to focus, we can figure this out

Leafy: How could the killer kill two people in such short time? They would've only killed one because it's time consuming to hide evidence!

Flower: Could've the culprit really plan on killing two people?

Blocky:Or maybe. The culprit killed in self defense?

Gelatin: NUH-UH! YOU'RE WRONG!

Gelatin: (Ok I shouldn't have yelled that out loud but it got Blocky's attention. Now he's just staring at me. and everyone else too...)

Blocky: So. Uh, Gelatin?

Gelatin: Yeahyeah- From the way the body, the crime scene was played out. It seems more of a:

- Planned Murder

-An accident <

Gelatin: an accident. It was..An accident (Wait am I thinking this through? This doesn't seem right.. Wait.. I think it i-)

???: DISAGREED!

Gelatin: (My attention went over to Ruby)

Gelatin: What?

Ruby: I like said I disagreed with that!

Gelatin: How come?

Ruby: Well! It's obvious that Lollipop and the culprit had a fight!

Gelatin: Well Ruby! Care to explain the.. I'm sorry note?

Ruby: sigh ok fair

Taco: So, The murder was an accident

Firey: Yeah, Seems like it

Teardrop: From the looks and the context of it yep

Profily: So that moves on to-

Taco: The culprit and the weapon

Gelatin: Mhm!

Profily: I was gonna say that! eh, I don't care!

Gelatin: (and with that another debate started. ~~when will this end~~)

Taco: Well obviously it's got to be Ruby, Flower, Teardrop or Bubble (obviously)

Woody: But w-who could've been left to k-kill..kill..Lollipop?!

Teardrop: Wouldn't it be better to start with the weapon

Leafy: Girls got a point! wouldn't it be better to start on the murder weapon?

Profily: Welp! All I know is that there was a mallet on the floor! Very detailed and pretty!

Taco: But no blood on it. (...)

Firey: One of them must've swapped it!

Bubble: Doin't look at me! I was in choirge of the coike! The other three were also busy with decorations!

Blocky: The mallet was so fucking ugly in color though!

Flower: I believe pink is a pretty color!

Gelatin: HOLD IT RIGHT THERE!

Gelatin: (As I said that. I saw Flower flinch in the corner of my eye)

Gelatin: Flower. You mentioned the mallet was pink when the mallet we all know and saw was yellow. Care to explain?

Flower: Woah! Woah! WHAT ARE YOU ACUSING ME?!

Profily: No need to get defensive! We're just asking

Blocky:Yeah! explain. unless you're hiding som-

Flower: IF YOU GUYS DON'T QUIT ACUSING ME OF KILLING LOLLIPOP I'LL- I'LL CRUSH YOU!

Gelatin: (The trial room went silent. Very silent. Flower covered her mouth the moment she said that)

Taco: Flower..

Gelatin: We never said you killed Lollipop.

Gelatin: (Flower flinched as she got all shaky)

Flower: I- I FUCKING KNEW THAT! WHY ARE YOU GUYS SO ANNOYING! I GOT TO TENSE. I DIDNT KILL HER!

Gelatin: We were only asking. about the mallet

Flower: OF COURSE! THE MALLET YOU ALLLL ASSUME I USED TO KILL LOLLIPOP IS THAT RIGHT?

Ruby: Woah! Flower please calm down and answer the questio-

Flower: IM CALM! I'M FUCKING CALM! ONE TINY, SINGLE, CRUTIAL MISTAKE AND YOU IDIOTS SUDDENTLY PIN ME ON THIS. IM GONNA CRUSH YOU. I'M GONNA CRUSH YOU ALL!

Gelatin: (There was no way to get through her with only questions. So I have to use evidence.)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HNp2SSBt7KI

(Flower argument armament)

Gelatin: (At that moment Flower started shaking, then soon began to sob)

Ruby: Flower? Are you okay..?

Flower: Am I okay? A-AM I OKAY?!

Four: Drama am I right X?

X: Yeah!

Flower: Okay.. I- ... I'll explain everything. But first. Don't you remember the motive?

Profily: Yeah! The motive!!!... What about it?

Four: The motive you idiots! Did you forget the motive?!

Gelatin: (That was right...The motive.)

Gelatin: Flower, Do you mind if I explain? .. everything is making so much sense now.

Flower: Hah. The floor is yours Gelatin.

Act 1:

Early in the morning mainly before i woke up. The blackend, Lollipop, Teardrop, Ruby and Bubble started planning my surprise party in the party room itself. I got up and Profily stalled me so it would buy you guys time to decorate and stuff.

Act 2:

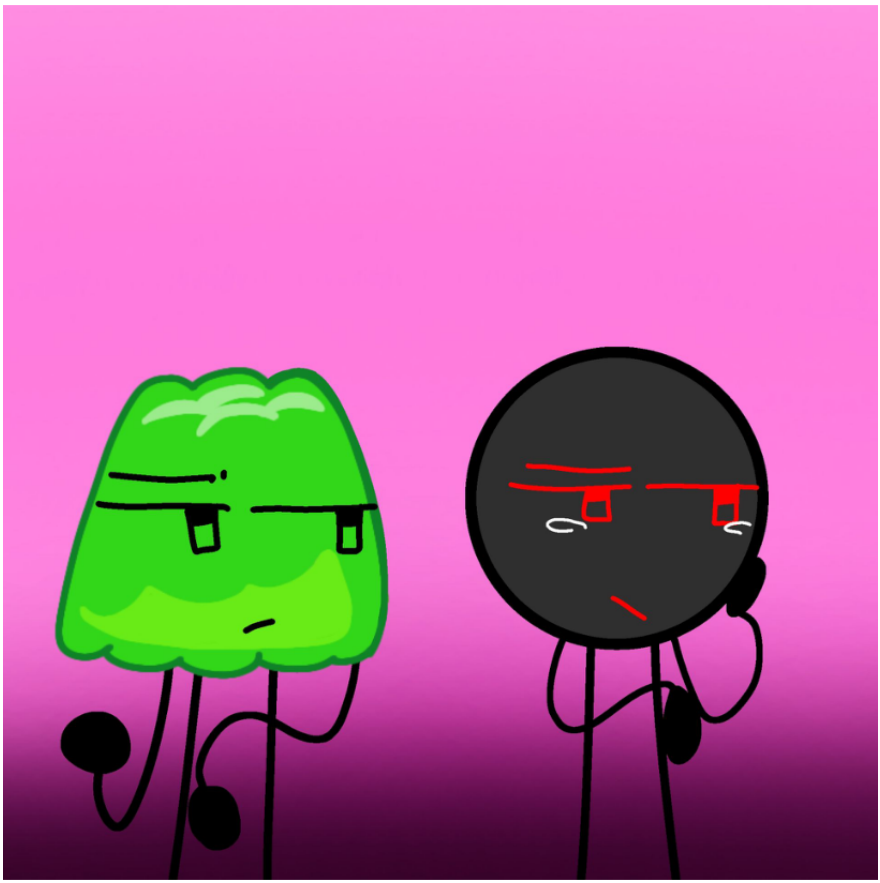
At that time. The rest of the other objects here, Came to the lobby, Taco on look out. Woody and Balloony not exactly in the lobby nor the party room. They were by the hall. When you guys realized I was coming back. Some of you guys warned the one's in the party room about it.

Act 3:

Ruby, Bubble, Teardrop and the Blackened left the room. Or that's what you guys think what happened. The blackened probably came back in the room to help Lollipop with decorations. But the motive had other plans for the blackend. That's when the Blackend has hallucinations. In a panic they used the mallet. And bashed Lollipop's head killing her. The blackend was unaware of this until the snapped out of it. They panic and stumbled back into the cake, probably that's why its messed up. They panicked even more and quickly wiped it.

Act 4:

They took a piece of paper and wrote "I'm sorry" on in as an apology, But an apology for a murder won't solve anything. They took the bloody mallet and swapped it for the yellow mallet we all saw in the crime scene. Then she left the bloody one in a box in the storage room. And soon closed the lights so no one would see. They knew I was already here. So she went the other way that wasn't in the direction of the party room. And joined in with the crowd as we saw Lollipop's dead lifeless body smashed to bits.



" It's my explanation right"

"Flower, Ultimate Fashion Designer?"

Flower: Hah.. nailed it. Oh for petals sake! I'm so so sor-

Ruby: SHE ISN'T GUILTY!

Gelatin: (I flinched as Ruby's words echoed in the trial room)

Flower: R-Ruby what are you saying-

Ruby: IT'S AN ACCIDENT! IT'S THE MOTIVE THAT'S TO BLAME

Four: It's the timing of the motive you stupid chunk of crystal! But!!! Either way it is your decision.

Ruby: Flower! I know you didn't mean it. Please don't give up! You can't die Flower!

Flower: Ruby...

Ruby: YOU HAVE TO KEEP LIVING

Four: Will she keep living? Who knows! Now. Everyone. Cast your votes on the screen of your podium vote wisely..

Gelatin: (The my screen suddenly flashed showing the icons. I look at Flowers icon. And pressed on it.)

Time passed and everyone casted their votes.

Four: X! The votes, please.

X: Everyone voted for Flower.

Four: But is it right? Even Flower herself voted.

The the TV turned on and showed Flower's icon.

Correct!

Four: And with that our Ultimate Fashion Designer Flower is guilty! You little rascal! Well. I have a special execution prepared for the Ultimate Fashion Designer. Let see if she can keep herself together! Well. Any little last words or something you'd like to say to these "innocent" people?

Flower: Gelatin, Teardrop. I am so so sorry for killing Lollipop. I-didn't mean to I know the amount of sorrys i could possibly say wouldn't bring her back. But I just hope that- nevermind. I don't deserve forgiveness. Im going to die anyways...

Teardrop: Yes we can't forgive you. Nor we can't say what you did was valid. Even if it was in self defense. But. We hope to see you again. And Lollipop.

Gelatin:..mhm.

Ruby: Flower..Please don't go!

Flower: Ruby, I've been proven guilty. I'm a murderer I'm sorry but. It's time for me to go.

Ruby: NO! PLEASE DON'T!

Four: Welp! You heard the Flower! Let's give it everything we've got... It's.. PUNISHMENT TIME!

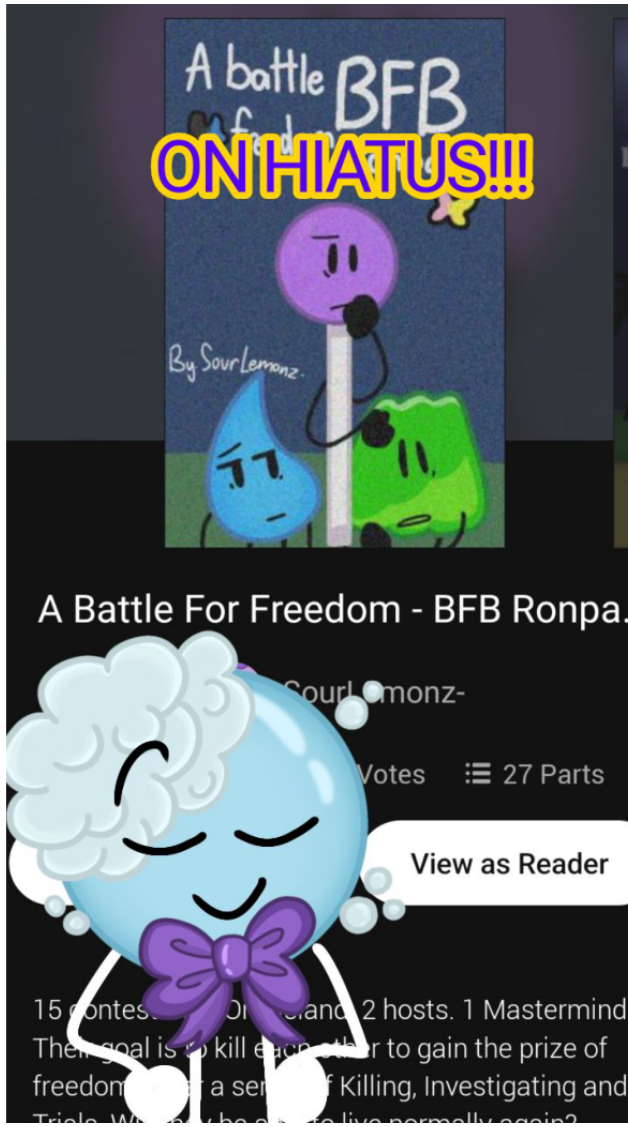
Gelatin: (and with that. Four pressed the button.)

Hello Readers!! Here's the next chapter! Sorry for being so late to publish this.. you see i broke my pet microwave so i brought it to the vet but the car crashed on the way and i landed in the police station and i was arrested 💀💀, And guess what? It's my birthday!!! (Execution Chapter Coming in a few hours!)

A/N 3

Due to my lack of motivation, time and even health issues. BFB Ronpa will be in hiatus for a certain amount of time. Which means the release of the second trial chapter will be postponed for this month! Thank you have a good day/night

-SourLemonz



I also lack ideas to continue for a while:p

✿ Fashion Disaster ✿

Flower has been found guilty ! Time FOUR the punishment !

The flower was grabbed by a blue hand as she was dragged away to her demise, Ruby tried to grab her but failed to. Flower opened her eyes to see she was in her fashion studio. She was confused, She tried to leave but stoon stumbled and fell. She realized she was wrapped in ribbons preventing her to move her body.

Flower's breath was getting heavy as all she could do was roll around on the floor. She saw something crawling. A bug. Not just one. Multiple. And they were clearly poisonous. Flower panicked as she managed to get on her feet, She tried to run away but there wasn't any doors near as expected. As she was looking for a way out she tripped on a wire knocking her over as she bumped into a bunch of mannequins with different fabrics and pins on it.

She looked over to the bugs who were still coming her way. Suddenly a bunch of pins and needles came flying by her, it managed to pierce her petals and it began bleeding. She hissed from the pain and she fell over and the pins and needles passed above her. But she realized she was sitting on a wire.

She quickly got up as fast as she can and panicked. She thought what was next. What would be her death. Would she be stabbed to death? Burned to death, Would she be poisoned by the bugs? Those thoughts flooded her mind. Her thoughts we're to much that it even overcame the pain of her bleeding petals. And then. Without her noticing. A big pair of scissors came right behind her.

Swing

Snip!

Flower's head hit the floor. And soon her body did too. The blood slowly gushed out from her body as it layed lifeless.

Four had pressed a button. Time started ticking. 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.

Tick...
Tick...
Tick...
BOOM!!

The bomb went off and everything ended up in an explosion.

That was the last time the contestants saw their fellow contestant, friend. Or even a considered enemy, Flower Ultimate Fashion Designer. Alive.

I don't know if being strapped to a giant star and being shot 5 times is brutal than this. Explosion reference to Flower's elimination!

Another one

[Gelatin's POV]

I watched as Flower died on screen. Sickening. So sickening. Another one, Another murder, Another execution. Two more deaths, How long do we have to suffer like this. At that moment I heard sniffling. I turned to my side. It was Ruby. She was sobbing about Flower's death. Flower was quite dear to her as I've heard. But she's not the only one who lost a friend." Why the fuck are you crying." I blurted out. Ruby turned to me with tears in her eyes." W-what do you mean why the fuck am i crying. Flower died, Lollipop died. That's why I'm crying!" Ruby said. Flower. She's crying over her?" FLOWER KILLED LOLLIPOP AND YOU CRY OVER HER?!" I yelled out. What was i saying.." It was an accident Gelatin.." I heard that robotic text to speech of teardrop say." SHE STILL KILLED LOLLIPOP. AREN'T YOU MAD LOLLIPOP UNFAIRLY DIED?"I yelled out in anger clenching my fists." Hey! Flower also died because of that motive! Don't be all salty that Lollipop died because Lolli was your friend! Flower and Lollipop were also good friends! You're not the only one who can be angry that they died! I can be too." Ruby said." Guys please..we can't have a fight everytime the trial finishes please! We've all lost friends here and we can be strong together! Please just stop fighting!" Leafy shouted as she covered her mouth realizing she was just screaming." Sorry! But guys, we shouldn't be fighting about this. We don't want another trial. We don't want another execution. And we don't want another death." Leafy was right..what am I thinking..what has gotten into me..Pull yourself together gelatin..."Uh Four, X? Is this our call to leave now?" Profily asked. As I looked over to four and x, Four was sleeping and X just stayed silent, Suddenly four woke up." You idiots done? Geez. You guys take up your sweet sweet time don't you? Whatever, do what you want just get to your rooms in the remaining time." Four said as the elevator door opened. We all enter the elevator and the elevator door closed. We were mostly silent, some whispering to each other. "Psst! Hey Gelatin." Profily whispered, I replied with a small hum giving the signal to them that I heard them." You alright? That trial kinda had a big impact on you..." Profily said as I stayed silent before whispering back." I'm fine now..I think.." Profily looked at me still kind of worried." Okays, whatever you say gelly boy!" They said as we made it back. The doors opened letting us out. I looked over to Teardrop. And an awkward silence filled as me and Teardrop just looked at each other wondering what to do now." So...Teardrop..what do you wanna-" "Hey guys!" "AA-FUCK" I jumped back as Profily was there." Geez Profily can you at least make your presence known before you go sneaking up on me like that! God!" I yelled my heart was still racing from it." Whoops! Sorry about that! But anyways. You two gonna do anything?" They asked. "Not really.." I replied. "Well I hope you guys can feel better after..the whole.. Lollipop situation..." Profily said. "Thanks.. You're a good friend." Gelatin said." Aw! Thanks! Anyways, Enjoy your day!" Profily said leaving. I turn back to look at Teardrop but she was gone." Oh so I guess she had other plans" I said as I walked around. I passed a corner until i see a table with.. Digit files. I took a look at each of them one by one. #11 It had a Sponge on it. #12 It had a cube on it. #4 It had a lollipop on it. #7 It had a flower on it. It belonged to the ones who died. I walked away as I got to the area of where the rooms were. I looked at Lollipop's room. I tried opening the door. It was locked of course. I enter my own room. There. I broke down, The tears made me soggy but who cares. I let everything out right there and then. I just let everything out the pressure of the trial was too much. So much for a good birthday. Maybe Lollipop wouldn't even die if she had never planned a surprise birthday for me. Flower wouldn't have killed her. No no no no no no no no no no no no no. Shit. Shit.shitshitshitshit. This is..my fault..no. Gelatin. Keep it together. Don't lose hope just yet, Lollipop would want this. To not give into despair. To not lose hope. That's what she would want.

[Traitor's POV]

"What the fuck is your problem?!" I said in a fit of rage as I angrily stared at the mastermind who was looking through the cameras, They turn around to look at me four plush in hand." What the fuck is your problem? What do you mean? It's a killing game. Don't expect it to go your way." The mastermind mocked." I did what you want. I never told a soul about who you are. Yet you kill people's friends for your satisfaction. You are just so sick!" I yelled angrily. "And we keep it that way, And yes. I did this for my own satisfaction so what. I can easily kill you if you were to tell anyone. You'd die without justice. You'd die knowing who the mastermind is not even getting to tell anyone. If I see you even trying to tell it to someone. I wont hesitate to even kill you right here. You got that [Redacted]?" They asked as I silently glared at them. They went over and grabbed me starring me down." I..I do.." I replied as they smiled and went back to their chair." Now that settles it. Go." They said as I left. Dying for injustice how sick will they ever be. And what if i do end up telling it to someone what will they do. They'll easily kill me yes. But who cares. I won't let them get the satisfaction they want.

[???'s POV]

I looked at the bright screens as tons of numbers showed up. "You're still trying to find them?" __ Asked." Yeah. If __ can't use any ability to help I'm doing it myself." I replied." But dont you not like any of them?" "I don't care. They're the reason the season was up for hold. For some reason. So im gonna find the lost ones. Because if they don't then who will." I replied looking back at the screen typing in strings of code and coordinates." Where did that idiot trap them." I said sighing. "Maybe you should rest." "I don't need rest. I'll find them and I will do it."

"Mark my words."

Hi!! Please remember that BFB will update probably every month but it depends on my motivation! I also have to deal with my life outside of wattpad too so please understand that BFB ronpa only has monthly uploads with 1-2 chapters if not I might make it up to you guys! Thank you so much for reading my bfb ronpa! Having 7.59k reads is such an honor to have knowing that a lot of people are looking forward to this, It started of as mostly a project for fun but i really had fun planning for BFB Ronpa making effort for this book was such fun! Ty! And see you in the next chapter :DD

Back to the Afterlife

[Lollipop's POV]

"I still don't get it how are you a Saleswoman and yet own a company?" Loser asked I tried to beat him in air hockey." Loser I don't understand if you're genuinely confused or your just trying to make me lose at air hockey." I replied as Loser laughed a bit." Maybe..a little bit of both..?" He replied as I rolled my eyes." Well Loser. I am still a Saleswoman even though I do own Company. And hold on where is Spongy?" I questioned as I stopped playing for a while."Wait yeah where is Spongy? He was just watching us." Loser looked around. We looked around more and saw Spongy still watching the trial.

"Oh hey Spongy. Any update on the trial?" I said as me and Loser approached him. Spongy turned to look at us." Yeah! Yeah! Look they just finished voting and stuff!" Spongy said as we watched. I was curious to see what would happen. Did they really crack the case about Flower killing me? I watched as the votes were revealed. Flower was the killer." Oh thank goodness they actually solved that.." I said sighing in relief."Lol. Flower made a mistake so she was caught." Spongy said." Haha. Seems like our culprits seem to always mess up and get themselves caught. Am I right Loser?" I said looking over to Loser." Oh quit it!" He said as i laughed.After a few minutes Flower's execution started. I didn't bother watching another execution especially after Loser's execution." So how long does it take for Flower to get here? We should be expecting her in a while right?" I asked." I don't know probably a few more seconds or minutes..? I didn't cou-" "AHHHH!" Someone yelled I flinched a bit but we rushed over to see. Flower.

[Flower's POV]

That very feeling where my head was cut of by those scissors. It was horrible. So horrible.. So- my vision was all black but suddenly i gained vision and consciousness again. Where was I. I stumble back. WHY IS MY HEAD ON THE FLOOR?! " AHHHH!" I yelled out. I heard footsteps. This felt so weird. I could feel my body. But my head. Its on the floor. I could still feel my own head. I could feel the colorful carpet I was resting on and I heard the footsteps get closer. "Ohh...my... gosh..." I heard..Loser's voice!?"WHERE AM I?!" I shout out. I felt my head get picked up. It was Lollipop her. Her head had a bunch of cracks and blood dripping from it." WHAT IS HAPPENING GET YOUR HANDS OFF ME!!" I whinned as Lollipop started walking over to my body. I grabbed my head the looked over to Lollipop then Loser then Spongy who was walking towards us. What in my gardener's name is this?! A nightmare?! " A-AM I STILL DEAD?! ARE YOU GUYS HERE TO HAUNT ME?!" I yelled in fear.

"Yes." Spongy said.

"No, No Flower. We're not ghosts to haunt you. You're in the afterlife. Which is an arcade as you can see." Lollipop began to explain the Afterlife arcade and all that stuff." But is there a way out of here?" I asked." Nope. Trust me we've tried." Loser replied. We all went to sit down by the food court for a while." God..I miss Ruby..She was just.. genuinely sad to see me go.. she was in denial of me being guilty...she was truly a nice gal.. Sometimes I would spend my free time with her..she even sang me this weird song called 'Two trucks'. Trust me it was really weird." I said. "Two trucks sounds like a kids song, whats so weird about Ruby singing you a kids song?" Loser asked." ITS THE EXACT OPPOSITE AND I DON'T EVEN WANNA EXPLAIN IT." I yelled." Well we would still be alive if you didn't kill me." Lollipop said rolling her eyes." LOOK IT WAS THE HALLUCINATIONS OKAY? I DID IT IN SELF DEFENSE" I replied loudly." So bashing me 4-5 times in the head is self defense?" Lollipop replied raising an eyebrow. " IT WAS A BUG A SAW. A POISONOUS ONE! READY TO KILL ME!" I yelled back. I looked back at Spongy and Loser who was watching the trial which was still ongoing." I bet you 10 tokens this fight will be ruined." Spongy said to Loser. "Wait fight? What's going on?" "See for yourself." I looked at the TV. There it was. Ruby angrily fighting with Gelatin. My eyes soften as I saw them in pain." I KNEW IT! The fight was ruined!" Spongy proudly said looking over to Loser. "Nuh uh! I didn't agree to this!" Loser said.

"Fine." Spongy replied rolling his eyes.

Lollipop has cracks all over her face now and Flower's head is decapitated from her body but she can still control her head and body!

Friends or Foes

[Gelatin's POV]

After the trial. It was very silent after the execution. I look back into my fight with Ruby a few days ago. I..I could've killed her. No that can't be right. We were just.. upset that ..That .. That Flower killed Lollipop. Even the thought of that stupid murder's name makes me remember, Such a great birthday gift. I looked outside as I lay in bed. The sun was rising and I opened my drawer. There was my friendship bracelet Lollipop gave me and Teardrop mine had a gelatin charm on it. And another one that was purple, green and blue. It was given by Teardrop.

I never really wore it in public. But I would keep it safe. You know what...I took the bracelet out of the drawer and wore it. I looked at it. I just wanted to cry so bad. I just heavily sighed. I waited till the sun fully was up, waiting for the morning announcement. But..what to do? Most importantly what should i do today? An hour or more passed and i just sat in bed hugging my knees as I eyed the clock and the window. Should I plan the day out? Maybe I could go to the bakery and grab maybe a slice of cheesecake? I dont know really.

About an hour of staying in my room which felt like eternity. The announcement finally came in.

Ding!
Ding!
Dong!

"A-ahem. Rise and shine shitheads! It is now 6AM! What does that mean? Well obviously it's for you guys to do something productive! (And for me to ruin your beauty sleep) Something productive you say four? Well of course! And example is; GET YOUR ASSES TO THE DINING HALL!" Four yelled over the speaker. It's like he gets aggressive and aggressive every day. Nothing new.

I put on my braclets as I walk out of my room yawing. I spotted Teardrop walking out the room with her laptop, I approached her tapping her tapping on the shoulder." Morning TD" I said as she looked at me and quickly started typing in her laptop."Good morning Gelatin, How are you feeling?" Her text to speech said." I'm doing fine today! How about you?" You idiot. You're not okay.

Me and Teardrop walked along with the others to the dining hall, It wasn't that loud. Mostly just quiet whispering." Im good Gelatin looks like you wore the bracelets today! Thats cool!" Her text to speech said.

"I wonder why Four is calling us today.." Balloony said." Probably to give us another stupid motive." Taco said crossing her arms."Uh! Probably!" Profily cheered out as they opened the door, There stood Four and X." Contestants! Welcome. You might have an idea why you guys are here!" Four said grinning." Uhh..Breakfast?" Profily asked. Four facepalmed from that." Profily. You idiot. I am this close to screeching you. But no! It's time for!..." Four looked at X, X just stood there smiling nervously."Ahem. Its time for!!...." Four said a little bit more loudly as X looked at Four confused."For??" X replied in a confused tone."PRIZES GODDAMN IT X! THE PRIZES!" Four angrily yelled at X as X immediately ran to the kitchen coming back with a tray."Okay! So we got grape flavored Lollipops and edible Flowers." Four said distributing it to us.

The moment i heard that word. That fucking name...I stood there gripping the purple lollipop that was given to me."Okay so are you just gonna give us food that resembles the ones that died last round?" Leafy asked looking at Four."Correcto Leafy! Doesn't it just feel wonderful?" Four asked smirking. Suddenly we heard Ruby bursting out into tears as Bubble quickly came to Ruby's side. Great just more stupid drama." Out of all things! A F-flower and a lollipop!" Ruby said crying as Bubble patted her trying her best to reassure her.

"Could you just shut up?" Those words came out of my mouth and I..I didn't even feel sorry for it." W-wh..what did you say..?" Ruby asked as she looked at me wiping her tears and standing up. She was standing right across me the dining table and chairs being the only thing separating us." I said could you shut up, I just repeated it to you, Is that better?" I replied. What was I saying? "What? Can't I grieve and cry over our friend's death? We're stuck in a killing game Gelatin! Get that drilled into your slimy non-existent brain!" Ruby yelled at me." WELL IT'S NOT MY FAULT YOUR SO CALLED FRIEND KILLED MINE!" "IT WAS AN ACCIDENT!" "SHE STILL KILLED HER!"

We kept on yelling at each other for half of the time as the other just watched shocked. Four and X took this time to 'leave us to it'. "HAH. FINE! IF YOU WON'T SHUT UP ABOUT HER WHY DON'T YOU JUST JOIN HER!" Ruby yelled out grabbing a fork from the table and ready to throw it at me, Lucky. Bubble stopped her from throwing it as Leafy grabbed the fork from Ruby." Guys! Please! This is all Four's intentions! If we try to kill each other that will satisfy them! So if we all want to make it out of here alive can we please never, try to even attempt to hurt each other. And not give Four or X the satisfaction they want? Please?" Leafy suggested. "I HATE THIS GAME! I DONT WANT TO PLAY ANYMORE!" Ruby yelled storming out of the room." Leafy's right though, No more killing! We should put an end to this!" Firey cheered.

After that whole frenzy I went outside for some fresh air, I felt a tap on my shoulder it was Teardrop clenching her fist. Wait was she gonna punch me. She brought her clenched fist and opened her hand and I saw. I..saw. It was Lollipop's charm. From her bracelet.."I...picked it up during investigation..You can keep it." Teardrop's text to speech said but now it was in a box like structure using a smaller device to type with." I..t-thanks TD..I..uh..did Four or X give you that?" I asked trying to wipe the tears from my eyes before they could get soggy." Yeah, X gave it to me, They said I didn't have to struggle carrying the laptop around." She replied." Speaking of laptop why did they even give you a laptop, Y'know since this is a killing game no mercy and stuff." I asked out of curiosity. " They wanted me to participate in trials, And since I'm unable to speak, They provided me with the laptop to use a text to speech. But then X gave me this so it'd be easier to carry around. Anyways are you okay now?" She asked. "Yep I am now!" No you're not.

"GELATIN!!!" I heard Profily yelling and running towards me then holding me hand and we started running I managed to bring teardrop along."UHH WHERE ARE WE GOING?" I asked. "SOMEWHERE!" Profily replied still running and pulling me. After a while we reach the bakery. We went inside and the lights were off. I opened the light and.

"Surprise!"

Bubble said holding out a cheese cake as my eyes lightened, Taco, Blocky, Woody and Leafy were there too." Now this is a not ruined surprise to day the least." Blocky." Taco said glaring at him. "Taco!" Blocky replied enthusiastically practically mocking Taco" Weioll..since loist time the party didn't go as ploined... Here's another cake to make up for it! And... here's a fork! And an extra once since I think I hoird you loik forks?" Bubble said passing a plate as my eyes sparked and Immediately started to eat it.

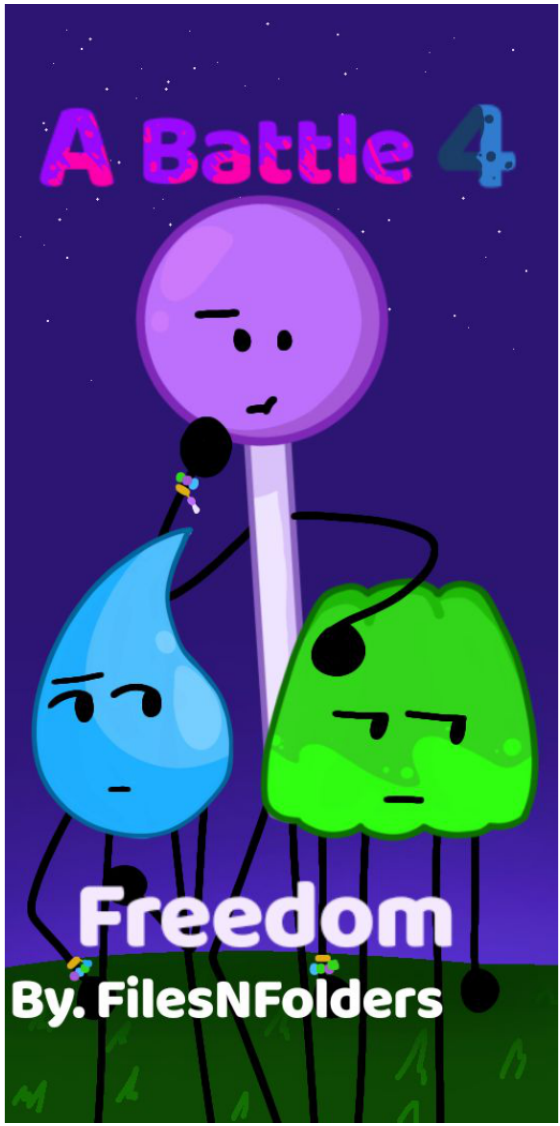
Okay I guess this is a good? Way to make up for my 'ruined birthday'....

I guess...

HAPPY ONE YEAR TO BFB ROMPA MY SWEET BABY!!! I am so sorry for only posting a chapter now, (since last time I posted as in February) It genuinely isn't the time for me to be writing since I do have other stuff I consider important (I have a writing and research job, school, relationships with loved ones to attend to aswell) but hey!!! Chapter 3!! Next chapter will come out in a month or something..

To celebrate the anniversary.



NEW BOOK COVER BABY!!

Forks for ya

[Gelatin's POV]

I sat beside teardrop eating some left over cheese cake from yesterday. Personally, I LOVE cheese cake! You can't go wrong with cheese cake! "Hey Teardrop, what ya doing?" I asked stuffing the cheesecake into my mouth."Comic." She replied then continued scribbling on her notebook."Sooo..." I said trying to break the silence but I couldn't think of a topic." Cheese cake am I right? Delicious!" I said, ilovecheesecakesomuchohmygod." Yeah! But thats your cheese cake it's a birthday present from bubble" her text to speech..speaker..box thingy said. Geez where did four and x get that from? "So what's your comic about this time TD?" I ask slowly peaking as she pushed me away.

"Well, to summarize it, The protagonists realizes the flower that gives the planet that their own life are having a shortage so they all split up to protect the flowers, but unfortunately it didn't really end well" the speaker replied. "Does the flower die? Wait no! Do they die?!" I asked in shock."No, no. Wait! Why am I spoiling you! Its a secret!" Teardrop looked frustrated then pushed me more making me laugh."Okay! Okay! I'll just continue eating my cheese c-" I get cut off by the sound of my fork hitting the plate.

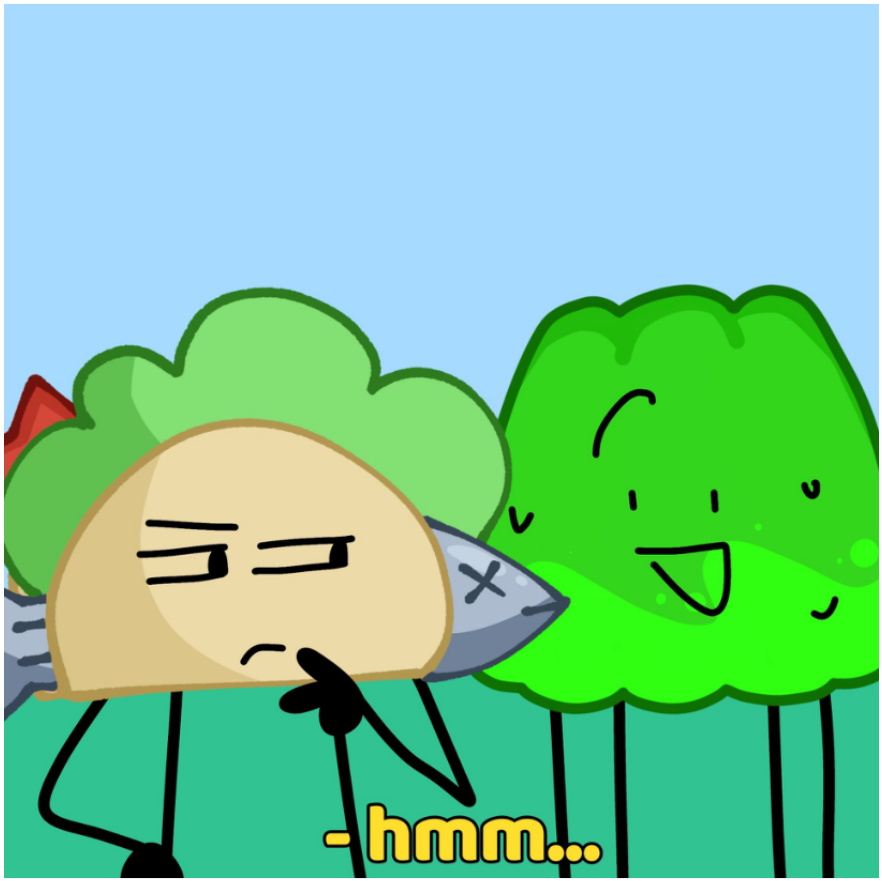
"Fuck" I frown and stood up. "I'm gonna go venture off TD! See ya!" I said as Teardrop waved. Before I left I saw a whole box of forks. I look at teardrop who was busy with her comic and around the bakery to see if anyone was looking and took the box and ran. I ran holding the box of forks giggling like I had malicious intentions. The giggling soon stopped as I bumped into someone and fell back on the ground."

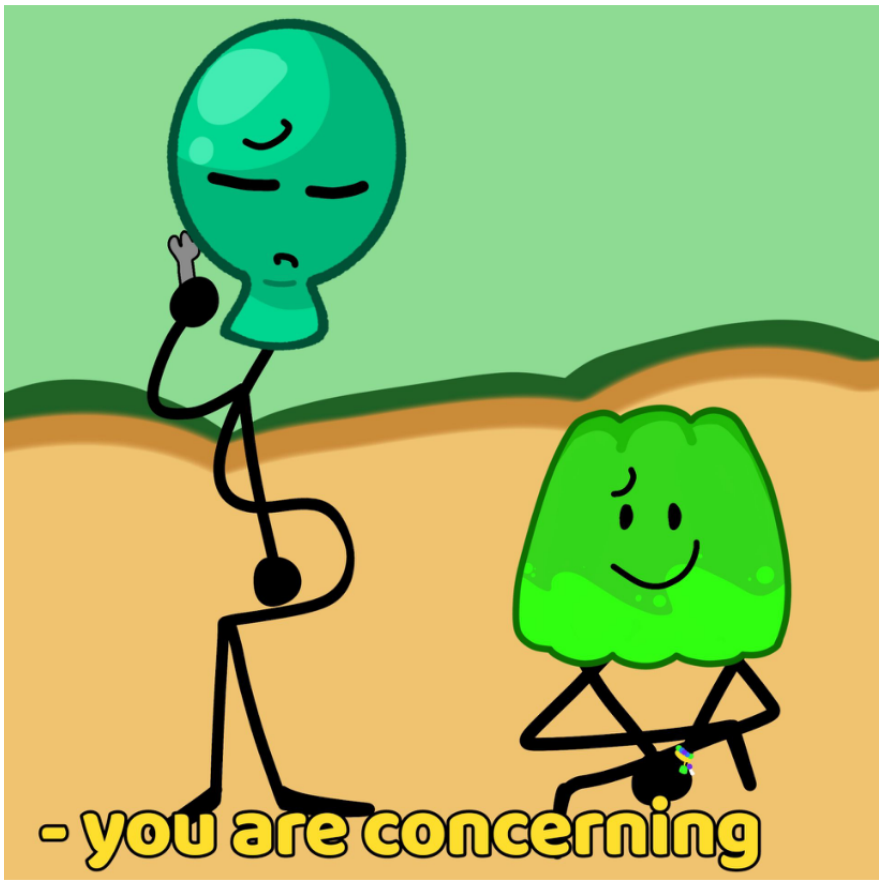
Ack- oh, Hey Gelatin" It was Taco, she eyed on the box of forks." And what are those for?" She asked looking at me squinting her eyes." I took them from the bakery and ran." I blurted out."Okay...and why?" She responded." I like forks." I replied smiling as she got closer to me.



"Hmm..." Taco hummed looking at me closely.

"HMM...okay then, I'm no judge, Im a detective!" Taco shrugged as I sighed in relief from the tension."Oh but if I see a fork if theres another body discovery, I got my eye on you birthday boy. Real close." Taco said as she walked away.

I headed over to the beach area and sat there. I have all these forks but what should I do with them. I could do some rock ski- oh wait the waves are too...crashy? For that."What are ya doing Gelatin?" Someone asked from behind i turned around to see Balloony." Whats in the box?" Balloony pointed."Forks!" I replied as Balloony's smile left immediately."Oh..What are ya gonna do with it..?" He asked."That's the thing! I love forks! I have a whole box of it but I have no idea what to do with it I mean with this many forks what am I supposed to do?" I reply getting one and just scrapping it in the sand." Maybe I can do some fork throwing! Forks for y-" I said as he held the fork I was gonna throw."No! Absolutely not! What are you trying to do kill me?" Balloony asked."No! I didn't mean too! I was kidding!"



" You are concerning." Balloony said." Uh nuh uh!" I replied." Believe what you want, but denial is a river in Egypt." Balloony said chuckling."And its best you don't go around throwing these if you dont wanna end up like..well y'know" Balloony said. Oh. Like..whatever. "Well.. I gotta go, Leafy needed me for something, it's about some nice list or whatever.." Balloony said as he left.

Later at dinner time me and teardrop sat beside each other, Profily and Balloony apparently made dinner." Hey gelly boy! How's the dinner?" Profily asked smiling."Its good actually!" I replied. "Maybe.. I'm the ultimate cook! Or the ultimate chef! Or the ultimate dinner maker!" They told me excitedly."Or the ultimate I cant shut my mouth for 2 seconds and always has to be talking all the time." Blocky said crossing his arms." Well at least they can like make food, Can youuu Blocky?" Ruby asked grinning."Shut it you red looking blood clot." Blocky replied."YOU'RE RED TOO!!" Ruby yelled back pouting as Bubble held Ruby before she coild try anything stupid.

"So you done with the comic TD?" I asked turning back to teardrop who..was gone? "What the green food coloring?! Where did she go?!" I asked looking around." She kinda just stood up and left half way." Profily said. "Aw man, I wanted to show her all my forks! Oh wait I didn't I was asking about the comic...hm. I think I need my head checked too..." I replied as Profily just laughed.

[Traitor's POV]

It was after dinner and I made my way to the backroom, I opened the door to go inside the room." [Redacted]? What are you doing here? I mean [ ] isn't yet." X said." Ouh, I thought I saw them come in here." I replied leaning against the wall." Maybe it was just me?" X replied."better not." Four said glaring at X with the same blank face he always had. Well pretty much for now. "Okay I'm here" I turn to see the mastermind." Aren't you the one who started the killing game yet you arrive late." I say staring at them as the grinned." Well sorry! I was just running late, papers dont write themselves!" They replied rolling their eyes." Look I still need to play a role here to seem innocent." They said." And you suck at it." Four said." I do not I hide it well! " The mastermind pouted." I cant believe in still working with you." I said." Then don't! So you can be next." They threatened as I rolled my eyes. "Let's just make this quick? I don't plan wasting my time, seeming suspicious. I also have to play pretend here. Not only you asshole." I hissed. I am this close to exposing you.

Mark my words on that.

Guess who showed up after millions of years! Yes me. After being burnt out and having many things to do, the next chapter is here !! (Next chapter is probably gonna be released next year /hj)

We saw.

[Gelatin's POV]

I woke up to something unexpected.

"A body has been discovered! Now. After a few hours of investigation,The class trial will begin! " Four cheered.

But who. Who died? I stood up and exited my room. I heard noises from the lobby..there.. there i saw...

JOKE CHAPTER I AM SO SORRY

3rd times the harm

[Gelatin's POV]

"Gelatin."

A voice spoke.

"Gelatin."

It said again. It's monotone voice echoed.

"Wake up."

It said as I shot up awake.

"Lollipop..?" I muttered.

There she stood. She looked at me with a blank face. Was the really her? I got closer. "Lollipop..? Where..where am I? Am I dead..?" I asked her. "She has not much time." Lollipop said. Confusion painted my face. "What? Who she? Lollipop what are you saying.

" SAVE HER "

What was she talking about. Then she started backing away. I got closer to her but she started to get further and further, then a loud noise was heard.

Ding!

Ding!

Dong!

" Rise and shine you..uh.. no where near Einsteins! It's officially 6 am! SO GET UP GET UP GET UP AND HAVE BREAKFAST BECAUSE I HAVE NEWS! "

Four yelled out as I jolted awake. I look around and slowly calmed myself down. "Okay. So it's just a dream. Thats good." I mutter to myself but Four's announcement intrigued. What did Four mean by news? I just hoped it wasn't what I was thinking. I went to brush my teeth and went outside my room. " Hey buddy ol' pal" Profily said happily as I give a smile back. "Oh hey Profily! Did four announce the news yet?" I asked. "No one did, it's too early for that." Taco said yawning. "God why do they make us wake up so early..?" Firey said as he spotted Taco and they exchanged glares.

I blinked and I was outside with the others. There Four and X stood there staring blankly at us. "Soo.. why are we here playdough creature one and two?" Blocky asked as they just stared at him. "Hello? Uh.. they're doing it again.." Leafy said having the balls to even get close to four just to wave her hand infront of them. "A." Four said. "AHHH!" Leafy screamed back as she jumped back. "Leafy. What the fuck are you doing" Four glared at Leafy. " W-well Uh you two were spacing out so I just wanted to-" "enough! Let four speak! " X exclaimed as the TV appeared out of nowhere and it slowly turned on Days passed and none of y'all have killed? I mean the last trial was sweet! Get it? Sweet? Like the one who's head shattered into pieces? Oh whatever.

Motive :
If you don't kill in the next few days, each and every one of you will start falling into a deep sleep, the way to wake up? By killing of course! Simple as that...

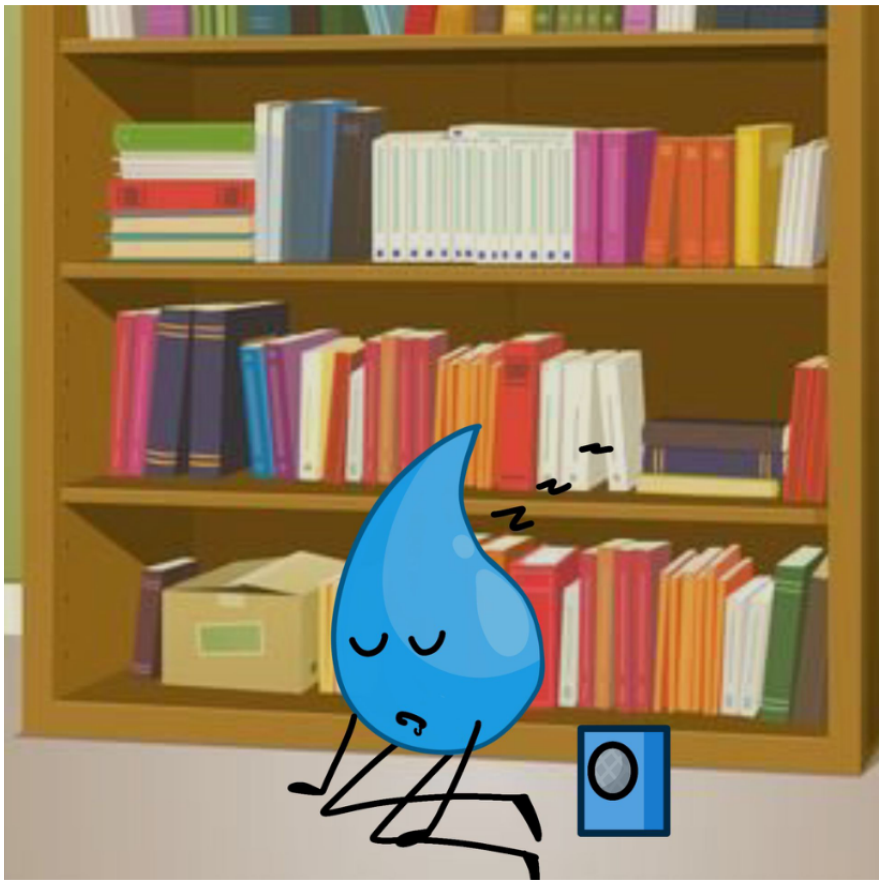
The TV soon turned off and everyone looked at each other. "Wait. Wait. Wait. wait. So you're like telling me if no one kills anyone, we're like all gonna be asleep forever?!" Ruby asks looking a little shocked. "That was literally what was just explained, did you even listen?" Four replied looking done with her bs. I heard someone yawn behind me and they started screaming. "AAAAAA!!!" Woody screamed as we all turned to him. "Geez woodster why are you freaking out? You afraid of yawning or something " Blocky asked. "N-no! Nuh uh! It's..j-just..uh..the motive." Woody replied. "Lmao. Help yourself and keep your mouth shut woody woodster." Blocky rolled his eyes as everyone left the area even Four and X.

I went to do my own thing. Maybe I should look for teardrop! I walked around the area and I saw.. woah! An indoor pool? That's cool! If I didn't get soggy when I comes to water. Lol! Firey would freak if he saw this area open! I go inside to see Balloony and Leafy inside. "According to my nice list you are.. 19th! On the list" Leafy said. "What? Who's above me then?" Balloony said curiously. "Its!!..uh.. who is coi-" "hey guys!" I said as they turned to me." Oh hi jelly tin!" Leafy said." No leafy it's GeLAtin! " I corrected. "Anyways I see this new pool so I kinda assumed Teardrop would be her" I said looking around the place. " Oh teardrop isn't here, probably check the book store? She is the ultimate comic book maker? Writer thingy right?" Balloony suggested as my eyes sparkled. "Okay thank you bye Balloony and Leafy!" I said heading out of the Indoor pool area.

I started heading towards the book store, I followed the pathway and soon stood by the front of the bookstore. I opened the door hearing a bell ring when I did. "Teardrop? YooHoo! You here?" I asked looking around the place." Balloony told us you could possibly be here so, ARE YOU HERE??" I yelled out the last part still looking, I looked around more, " If I were TD, where would I be?" I asked myself. Then it clicked. Aha! The comic book section! I paced over there and ..

Saw..

I..saw...



Teardrop. She's..asleep right? She's snoring. Please tell me she didn't fall asleep because of the motive. I go up to her and gave her a light tap. Nothing. This time I tried shaking her. " TEARDROPPPP!!! HELLOOOOO???" I yelled shaking her almost violently. She still wasn't waking up! "I see the motive already started taking place! Teardrop, first victim to motive! " Four said as I look back at teardrop. " Oh gosh Teardrop why did it have to be you who was first to fall asleep.." I frowned. "Hey Four do you just rando-" I turn around and Four was gone. "Oh.. of course their gone. Well cant leave you here right? " I look at teardrop." Uh..Four? X? Hello?" I asked and this time X came out of nowhere." Yesss?" X asked. "Uh, Teardrop fell asleep. Can you bring her to her room?" I asked as X looked at her and to me."hmm...uhhh..can do!" X said clapping their hands and soon Teardrop disappeared.

It was dinner time and everyone sat down." Hey.. someone's missing." Profily said." You're right.. Teardrop isn't here!" Taco exclaimed. I decided to speak up about it. "Teardrop..kinda..fell asleep because of the motive.." I said looking down at my plate. "Whoit! Ouh no!" Bubble said absolutely terrified. "Hey at least she isn't like dead yet bubble! Just like uh...in a coma!" Ruby said. "But being in a coima isn't a goid thing at all too!" Bubble replied. Everyone started chatting their heads off as I sat there eating my food. Then I suddenly remembered my dream. "Save her" That's what Lollipop told me in my dream. Save her. Save.. Teardrop? But the only way to make her wake up again is by..oh. please dont tell me I have to - "Uh hello!!" A voice said as I snapped out of my thoughts I turn to see Profily. "Uh heya buddy I noticed you were spacing out and uh.. eating your fork, you good?" Profily asked me as I looked down to see my empty plate, I was probably lost in thought I didn't realized I finished eating. "It's about Teardrop. I hope she's okay.." I said looking at them. "Well don't worry. Hopefully we can get her to wake up without killing of course! " Profily smiled as I smiled back.

I really hope she does wake up.

A new chapter for this year!! Wooo hooo!! I somehow got the motivation to write this at last :3
